SECRET ULTIMATUM IS

By the Railway Managers' Association Agents

ISSUED TO TRAIN MEN

Today Will Determine Strike

CHICAGO, April 2.—Commissioners Knapp and Neil were in conference until midnight with the general managers and it was said after the meeting ended that the railway officials had issued an ultimatum to the men which was to be final.

The nature of this proposition could not be learned tonight, the commissioners deeming it advisable to present it to the men's representatives before making it public.

DEMOCRATS CAPTURE THE TOWN OF CRIPPLE CREEK

DENVER, April 2.—All the cities and towns of Colorado excepting Denver held municipal elections today. Local issues were fought out principally in a number of towns but one ticket was in the field. The question of licensing saloons was voted on in several towns, the most comprehensive victory for the anti-saloon element being at Boulder. The wiping out of the saloon trade in that city places the whole of the northern Colorado agricultural district under dry rule. A most partisan victory was at Cripple Creek, where the Democrats regained control of the city's affairs after six years of continuous Republican rule. In Leadville and Pueblo, the Democrats were victorious, the latter by a small margin, and in Colorado Springs the straight Republican ticket won out. In the mountain towns where liquor was before the voter's the saloon element carried the day.

WISCONSIN ELECTIONS

MILWAUKEE, April 2.—Justice R. D. Marshall Republican, appears to be re-elected to the supreme court over Henry Scudder of Marinette. The returns are closed.

Local questions were issues in most of the city elections.

DEMOCRATS TAKE ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS, April 2.—As a result of the city election today the Republicans concede to the Democrats the entire city council ticket, all the members of the school board and fifteen of the twenty-eight members of the house of delegates. The Democrats claim five additional.

LONGSHOREMEN FIGHT

HAMBURG, April 2—Eight English longshoremen were badly injured and many others were slightly hurt in a fight last night with local lockedout longshoremen. A strong force of police had to be hurried to the scene of the disturbance to rescue the imported labor.

MAYOR TO JAIL

WARSAW, Mo., April 2.—Mayor H. W. Salmon, convicted of illegal banking, was today refused a new trial and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

RUEF JURY IS HARD TO SECURE---TWO MEN ACCEPTED SO FAR

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—A legal battle that promises to last for weeks and which is expected to be in a measure pivotal of all the criminal proceedings growing out of the grand jury's bribery graft investigation, was begun in earnest today when Abraham Ruef, San Francisco's indicted political boss, was placed on trial in Judge Dunne's department of the superior court on the charge of extorting large sums of money from local French restaurateurs under threat that unless paid, he and Mayor Schmitz would prevent the renewal of their liquor licenses by the police commission.

Only a very brief session of court was held in the morning, adjournment being taken until two o'clock owing to the absence of a talesman, for whom a bench warrant was issued. When court adjourned at the conclusion of the afternoon session, one talesman had been examined and passed without challenge by both sides and the second was under examination by the defense. The first is J. R. Bradstreet, a weather-strip manufacturer of No. 759 Eddy street; the second, Angelo R. Dupern, a real estate man living at 2152 Pine street.

The talesmen were closely questioned as to their acquaintance with editors, reporters, municipal officials, French restaurant men, grand jurors, Judge Dunne and others. They were asked whether they had any prej-

WONDER MAN IS ARRESTED FOR IDAHO LAND FRAUDS

FEDERAL SECRET AGENT CAPTURES HIM AT LAST

Two Year Hunt for Guilty Is Rewarded by Finding Attorney in Nevada

John Kinkaid, who went into Wonder district two months ago, was spirited from this state yesterday by federal secret service agents and taken to Boise, Idaho, to face a charge of defrauding the government of public lands.

The detectives have worked for two years on the case, and after fastening alleged evidence of the crime on Kinkaid, they stated that the case is one of the most important ever brought to light, involving some of the most prominent people in Idaho and for which several will spend their days in the penitentiary.

Kinkaid is charged with being an accomplice in the commission of the frauds. He was taken from Wonder during the afternoon, brought here on the evening train, and then started for Ogden in chains for the remainder of the trip.

Kinkaid went to Wonder as an attorney. He was bright, well appearing, and made many friends. His arrest came as a great surprise to those with whom he was associated.

The Idaho land frauds are said to have extended over a long period, and to include thousands of acres now held by private parties.

JAPS FOR KOREA

HONOLULU, April 2.—Three hundred Japanese will leave here on the steamship Korea for San Francisco, where they will be transhipped to Vancouver, B. C.

SAN FRANCISCO WITHOUT LIGHT OR ELECTRIC POWER

FIRE LAST NIGHT PUT THE CITY IN DARKNESS

Theatre's Had to Close and the Jail Was Surrounded by Armed Guards

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2—The destruction of the electric light and power house of the San Francisco Gas & Electric Company at Twenty-second avenue and Georgia street by fire tonight plunged almost the entire city into darkness, resulting in the injury of five firemen, at least one of whom will die, and caused a loss estimated at $1,000,000. The firemen are in the Potrero emergency hospital seriously injured by being caught under falling walls when the building unexpectedly collapsed.

The destroyed power house was the principal electric light and power plant of the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company and furnished the electric light for the larger portion of the city. Virtually the entire city with the exception of the water front and a section south of Folsom street, which are furnished by the power house at Spear and Folsom streets, is in darkness so far as electric light is concerned.

The destroyed plant furnished the power for nearly all the street lights and as a result practically all the streets are in darkness, including Fillmore and Van Ness Avenue in the new business section. Several street car lines are tied up.

Out of the nine leading theatres, six could give no performance, the Novelty, Orpheum and Central being the only play houses which have gas lights for emergency purposes while the Chutes theatre obtained electric power from the United Railroads. All the minor theatres and other places of amusement and several of the principal restaurants were in total darkness all night.

Extra police were placed on duty at the temporary hall of justice and city prison at Eddy and Mason streets. Owing to the darkness, the building having no gas connections, no one was allowed to enter or leave the city prison and no prisoners were released on bail.

J. A. Britton, president of the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company, estimated the loss at $2,500,000. He

HARRIMAN'S AID GIVEN ROOSEVELT

To Shake Down the Big Corporations in 1904 the Railway Man Says

ROOSEVELT GIVES HARRIMAN THE LIE

Positive Proof of Republican Corruption

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The greatest political sensation of many years was caused today, first bby E. H. Harriman's letter, published in Chicago, in which he declared plainly and without equivocation that President Roosevelt had requested him to raise funds to carry New York in 1904 for the Repubblican party, whose candidate for president he then was, and second by President Roosevelt's hot-headed reply, followed tonight by Harriman's rejoinder.

Harriman's charge is deliberate. Roosevelt's reply is headstrong and reveals close relations between the railway promoter and the president, notwithstanding the denial of the actual raising of money. The correspondence proves convincingly the close relation between the Republican party and the money kings of Wall street.

Roosevelt calls Harriman a deliberate liar in as plain language as the president of the United States could use with any regard, whatever, for the dignity of his office. Harriman's intention is as plain in return.

HARRIMAN'S LETTER

The statement of Harriman became public through the publication in Chicago of a letter from Harriman to Sidney Webster, a lawyer of New York and brother-in-law of Stuyvesant Fish, dated in December, 1905, in regard to the insurance investigation that was then occupying public attention.

In the letter, Harriman says he was called to Washington by Roosevelt just before the election of 1904, when it looked as if New York would go Democratic and Roosevelt would be defeated. Roosevelt asked him to raise funds for the Republicans "as the national committee had utterly failed of obtaining them." Harriman says he told Roosevelt that Depew was the trouble and that if Depew could be cared for in some other way than sending him again to the senate the money would be forthcoming. Roosevelt agreed to send Depew as ambassador to Paris.

"With full belief that he, the president would keep his agreement," says Harriman. "I came back to New York, sent for Treasurer Bliss who told me that I was their last hope and that they had exhausted every other resource."

Harriman declares that he contributed $50,000 and that the remaining $200,000 was raised in a few hours.

"The checks were given to Treasurer Bliss, who took them to Chairman Cortelyou," he goes on to say. "If there were any among them of life insurance companies, of course, Cortelyou must have informed the president. I do not know who the subscribers were other than the friend of Depew, who was an individual. This amount enabled the New York state committee to continue its work with the result that at least 50,000 votes were turned in the city of New York alone, making a difference of 100,000 votes in the general result."

Later, Harriman writes, he saw Roosevelt, who said he did not think it necessary to send Depew to Paris—in fact that he favored him for the senate. Harriman explains that he was taken aback, but he could say nothing further and used what influence he had to return Depew to the senate.

"Ryan's success in all his manipulations, the traction deals, tobacco combinations, manipulation of the Tate Trust Company into the Morton Trust Company, the Shoe and Leather Bank into the National Bank of Commerce, thus covering up his tracks," the letter says in conclusion, "has been done by the adroit mind of Elihu Root, and this is the situation that has been brought about by a combination of circumstances which has brought together the Ryan, Root, Roosevelt element. Where do I stand?"

ROOSEVELT'S REPLY

When Roosevelt read Harriman's letter, he said it was a "deliberate and willful untruth—by right it should be characterized by an even shorter and more ugly word. I never requested Mr. Harriman to raise a dollar for the presidential campaign of 1904."

Roosevelt relies in the main for his reply on a letter which he sent to Representative Sherman of New York in October 1906. This deals with practically the same matter, as at that time Sherman had written that Harriman had refused to contribute to the state campaign fund on account of his dislike for Roosevelt, a dislike, Harriman had explained, that was founded upon Roosevelt's failure to keep his agreement to appoint Depew ambassador to France.

Roosevelt's version of the conversation with Harriman—he admits that such a conversation did occur—is that Harriman urged him to appoint Depew ambassador because that would help Governor Odell by pleasing certain big financial interests. The president said he informed Mr. Harriman that he did not believe it would be possible to appoint Mr. Depew and expressed his surprise at his (Harriman's, saying that the men representing the big financial interests of New York wished the appointment made, inasmuch as a number of them had written asking that the place be given to Mr. Hyde. Mr. Harriman on learning Mr. Hyde was a candidate, said that he did not wish to be understood as antagonizing him.

The president, it appears, was unwilling to appoint either Depew or Hyde, as ambassador, and also left unchanged his recommendations to congress concerning the interstate commerce law, notwithstanding suggestions and criticisms by Mr. Harriman of the president's course in that regard as expressed in certain letters, which Mr. Harriman wrote to the president.

The letters to Sherman are quoted in full by Roosevelt. They say that Harriman told Sherman, when the latter asked him whether he wanted to see Hearstism triumph over the ... that "he did not care in the least, because those people were crooks and he could buy them, he could buy congress and ... the judiciary." Roosevelt ... to Sherman that Harriman was ... requested by him ...

... to come later ... weeks hence before I write my message" when he will get him to come down "to discuss certain government matters not connected with the campaign."

Later Harriman, according to Roosevelt, wrote to him saying that many conservative people had fears as to what Roosevelt would say in his letter of acceptance and he hoped nothing would be said with regard to interstate commerce. This letter was crossed by one from Roosevelt to Harriman, a copy of which is given out by Roosevelt. It was marked "strictly personal." Previously the president had said he wanted to talk to Harriman about Higgins. Now he says it was in reference to currency matters and not railway sub-

Alienists Are Still Battling Over Harry Thaw's Sanity

NEW YORK, April 2.—It was announced tonight after a session which lasted from 10.30 this morning until 6.30 p. m. that the lunacy commission inquiring into the present mental state of Harry K. Thaw will conclude its labors tomorrow and report its conclusions to Justice Fitzgerald before the hour set for the Thaw jury to report in court Thursday morning.

There will be a brief public session tomorrow to hear the testimony of an alienist offered by District Attorney Jerome and then will follow a private mental and physical examination of the defendant. Only the members of the commission and the official stenographers will be present at Thaw's ordeal, attorneys for the defense and the district attorney being barred.

The announcement that the commission desired to renew its private examination of Thaw came at the end of a day of many witnesses and it was in the nature of a surprise. The decision probably was due to the conflicting character of the testimony heard today. It was another battle of alienists.

Those engaged by the district attorney declared Thaw absolutely incapable of understanding his condition, of realizing the nature of the charge against him, or of rationally conferring with counsel, while those engaged by the defense declared Thaw throughout the trial had acted in a rational manner; had rationally advised his counsel in their hearing and fully understood and appreciated everything connected with the trial.

Mrs. Hendricks, who is twenty two years old, accused her husband of compelling her to commit the crime but afterwards assumed the guilt herself.

Chicago Passes Into Control of Republican as Its Mayor

CHICAGO, April 2—Chicago's postmaster, Frederick A. Busse, the Republican candidate, was elected mayor of the city today having a plurality of 13,121 votes over Mayor Edward F. Dunne. The total number of votes cast for Mr. Busse was 164,839, and for Mr. Dunne 151,718. The prohibition candidate polled 5,875 votes and the socialists 13,459. Two years ago, when Mayor Dunne was elected to office, he polled 163,109 votes and John M. Harlan, the Republican candidate, 138,671. The socialist vote the same year was over 40,000, and today's vote was a great disappointment to the leaders of that party.

The new mayor will have the city council with him, but it is very close, as the make-up of this body shows thirty-five Republicans, thirty-four Democrats and one independent Democrat.

The ordinances settling the street car question were carried by a good majority. The total vote on this question was 163,846 for and 132,720 against.

According to the returns at midnight, the only Democrat outside of aldermen elected was John E. Traeger, Democratic candidate for city treasurer.

The campaign has been one of the most vicious the city has ever known. Charges and counter-charges have been hurled back and forth, the personal lives of the candidates are held up to the public and throughout the entire campaign speakers on both sides have indulged night after night in tirades filled with invective and abuse.

William Randolph Hearst came personally from New York to have part in the campaign and brought with him his ablest cartonists and editorial writers. In his papers were the only publications in the city supporting Mayor Dunne, all others being for Busse and the ordinances. The fight between the editorial departments became so energetic that the actual issues of the campaign were for some time completely lost sight of. The papers favoring Busse made much of the party cry that Chicago was able to manage its own interests without instructions from New York.

The Hearst papers claimed throughout the campaign that Mayor Dunne was acting for the best interests of Chicago, and that it was therefore their duty to support him.

Mayor Dunne abandoned hope within two hours after the polls closed. He received the returns at his home, surrounded by his family and a few friends. He appeared to be greatly affected by the result and said:

"It looks as though the money power has overwhelmed us, but our cause is not lost. Municipal ownership and governmental ownership will win in the end. This election has merely acted as a check. It will retard us for a while, but the movement will go on and will in the end be successful.

Monopolist Harriman Intimate Adviser of Reformer Theodore Roosevelt

jects. He writes to Harriman that he cannot show him his message, but that the position he has taken with regard to the interstate commission is based upon revelations with regard to the beef trust and that he cannot change it.

Harriman's reply was that an effective interstate commerce commission could regulate rebates and prevent them without any further law. Roosevelt says he left his message unchanged after getting this letter. He declares that the correspondence is incompatible with Harriman's statement that he asked for money. On December 10, 1904, Harriman wrote, asking that Hyde be appointed minister to France. He was refused. Roosevelt says Harriman's remarks about buying congress and the judiciary horrified him.

"It shows a cynicism," writes Roosevelt, "and a deep-seated corruption which make the man uttering such sentiments and boasting, at least as undesirable a citizen as Debs or Moyer, or Haywood. It is because we have capitalists capable of uttering such sentiments and capable of acting on them that there is strength behind sinister agitators of the Hearst type. The wealthy corruptionist and the demagogue who excites, in the press or upon the stump, in office or out of office, class against class and appeals to the basest passions of the human soul, are fundamentally alike and are usually enemies of the republic. I was horrified, as was Root, when you told us today what Harriman had said to you."

HARRIMAN'S REJOINDER

NEW YORK, April 2.—E. H. Harriman late tonight gave out a statement in response to the statement made public by President Roosevelt today. Mr. Harriman says what he wrote to Webster was, of course, intended for his eyes alone. In the course of a letter which Webster wrote to Harriman in December, 1905, he warned Harriman against being drawn into politics and questioned whether he had any political or party instinct. This drew from Harriman the reply to Webster's inquiry, which, in a substantially correct form, Harriman says, was stolen and published. This letter was written on January 2, 1906, at a time when no one could doubt the cordiality of Harriman's relations with the president, he adds. He goes on to say:

"When I learned late yesterday afternoon that a New York paper had a transcript of these notes, I notified the publisher at once of the facts and urged upon his attention the gross outrage that the publication of it under such circumstances would involve. While deploring, of course, that the sacredness of a private correspondence should be violated, I cannot withdraw anything from the letters. I have read the president's statement and am most anxious to treat him and his utterances with respect which his high office demands. Nevertheless I feel bound to call attention to certain things in which he does me an injustice.

"In his letter to Mr Sherman he clearly seeks to give the impression that the personal interview in the fall of 1904 was of my seeking. He says his ((Harriman's) and my letter now before me in the fall of 1904 ran as follows: 'On his return from spending the summer in Europe on September 10, he wrote me stating that if I thought it desirable he would come to see me at any time, then or later. When he had been, as you remember, a delegate to the Republican convention, having voted for my nomination. On September 28, I answered his letter, saying that at present there is nothing for me to see you about, though there were one or two points in my letter of acceptance which I would like to have discussed with you before putting it out.'

"Let me present the facts. On June 29, 1904, the president wrote me the following letter which he does not include in the correspondence published today. It reached me in Europe:

"'White House, Washington, June 29, 1904.

"'Personal.

"'My Dear Mr. Harriman: I thank you for your letter. As soon as you come home, I will want to see you. The fight will doubtless be hot then. It has been a real pleasure to see you this year.

"'Very truly yours

"'THEODORE ROOSEVELT.'

"In reply to this, I wrote him on my return from Europe the letter of September 20, the opening sentence of which he eliminated in his publication:

"'New York, Sept. 20, 1904.

"'My Dear Mr. President: I was glad to receive your note of June 29th last while I was in Europe. I am now getting matters that accumulated during my absence somewhat cleared up and if you think it desirable will go to see you at any time either now or later. It seems to me that the situation could not be in better shape.'

"'Yours sincerely,

"'E. H. HARRIMAN.

"'To the President, Washington, D. C.'

"Then followed a series of invitations from the White House both from the president and his secretary urging me to go to Washington. On October 10th the president wrote:

"'In view of the trouble over the state ticket in New York, I should much like to have a few words with you. Do you think you can get down here within a few days or take either lunch or dinner with me.'

"On October 14th he wrote:

"'My Dear Mr. Harriman:

"'A suggestion has come to me in a roundabout way that you don't think it wise to come to see me in these closing weeks of the campaign, but that you are reluctant to refuse inasmuch as I have asked you.

"A funeral in my family prevented a prompt response to the president's repeated invitations, but finally, about October 20th, I was able to go to Washington and see him. There is some difference of recollection as to what transpired at that interview.

"Fortunately the president himself in his 'personal' letter of November 30 throws some light upon what did take place. He says: 'If you remember when you were down here, both you and I were so interested in certain of the New York political departments that I hardly if at all touched on governmental matters.' Again in the same letter he says: 'As a matter of fact, as you will remember, when you did come down to see me, you and I were both so engaged in the New York political situation that we talked of little else.'

"The invitation of October 10 bade me to the White House to have a few words with the president 'in view of the trouble with the state ticket in New York.' I had replied on October 12: 'I am giving a very large part of my time to correcting the trouble here and intend to do all any effort on my part can accomplish it. I will take occasion the first of next week to run down and see you, and I think by that time the conditions will be very much improved.'

"Whether I was seeking his aid to secure the adherence of the state of New York to the state ticket or he was seeking mine, is proved or disproved by this correspondence and I cheerfully submit to the public whether the inference clearly suggested by the president is the proper one. I did not so understand it from the invitation nor from the interview.

"The president dwells at length on the assertion that he did not ask me to contribute for the presidential campaign, nor for his personal benefit.

"I do not deny this statement, nor is it all consistent with the assertions I made in the Webster letter respecting the interview. Therein I distinctly said, 'The president sent me a request to go to Washington for a conference upon political conditions in New York state. I complied and he told me he understood the campaign could not be successfully carried out without sufficient money and asked if I would help them in raising the necessary fund as the national committee under Chairman Cortelyou had utterly failed of obtaining them and there was a large amount due them from the New York state committee.'

"If that means anything, whatever, it must be that he was urging me to help the New York state committee and not the presidential campaign, except so far as the success of the state ticket would contribute to the success of the national ticket.

"What the condition of the finances of the New York state committee of the Republican party was, was well known to every one. That the national committee did owe the state committee and the state committee was in financial straits is notorious. I was not a political manager. I was asked to go to Washington by the president in the interests of the state ticket. I could help to raise money. That I did help in this regard, that I did raise funds immediately upon my return from the interview with the president is undeniable and to this fund I contributed $50,000. My interview with the president covered a wide range of subjects connected with the New York state campaign and I did not pretend to go over the whole matter in the Webster letter.

"The president's letter of October 14 and his comment thereon are interesting. In that letter he suggested that I might think there was some danger in my visiting him during the closing weeks of the campaign and suggested that if I thought so, my visit be postponed until after election, when he would ask me to 'discuss some governmental matters not connected with the campaign.' Here were two distinct invitations to discuss two different subjects. I could see no danger in visiting him to discuss New York politics before the election, and therefore I went and discussed the subject alone, and after election took up the other subject for discussion with him.

"I think if what concerned me as the object of the visit had been the government's relation to the railroads the interview would certainly not have been entirely confined to politics.

"I am not responsible for what Mr Sherman may have said to the president with reference to the conversation he had with me. All that I have to say is that I did meet his urgent requests, that I contributed to his campaign fund and that the statements alleged to have been attributed to me by him were false. The president was assured of this fact by a mutual friend who was present at the interview."

PARKER VINDICATED

ALBANY, April 2.—Alton B. Parker, Democratic candidate for the presidency in 1904, displayed the keenest interest in the letter of E. H. Harriman published today, especially in regard to its relating to his own charge made in the 1904 campaign that the great corporations were largely financing the Republican campaign. Tonight he issued the following statement:

"That $150,000 was turned over by the Equitable, Mutual and New York Life Insurance Companies to Mr. Cortelyou's committee and has never been denied, of course. It was testified to under oath by a body who could have summoned Mr. Bliss and Mr. Cortelyou to the witness stand if it had been denied. It is safe to deny Mr. Harriman's statement because there is not a commission before whom Mr. Bliss, Mr. Cortelyou and others can be summoned and compelled to testify. Congress has refused to make an investigation of the corporate contributions of 1904 or to pass a law prohibiting corporate contributions in the future. The money raised by Mr. Harriman and contributed by the life insurance companies aggregating $250,000 was but a drop in the bucket as compared with the total contributions by railroads and other great corporations. The public independence of an investigation cannot be over-estimated at this time. One of the questions now pressing for solution is whether the federal government's control over the great corporations shall be extended further. It will help to solve that problem rightly to learn that governmental power in the past has been for political purposes—used to raise money to continue an existing administration. The proof that it has been used will make it clear to every mind that it can be used again."

All Her Property Deeded to Trustees Who Are Given Power to Defend Her Interests in Courts of Law or Of Equity

CONCORD, N. H., A motion for leave to intervene involving the substitution of duly appointed trustees as plaintis in place of "next friends" was the answer of Mrs. Mary Baker G. By a deed of trust Mrs. Eddy transferred practically her entire estate to three trustees, Henry M. Baker, of Boston, Archibald McLellan of Boston and Josiah E. Fernald of Concord.

It is claimed Mrs Eddy cannot be compelled to appear in court in connection with the pending litigation. RENO THEATRE

The Nevada Hippodrome Circuit Company will build a first-class theatre in Reno, which will be in a circuit with the Goldfield Hippodrome and Tonopah Hipprodrome theatres.

The building will be erected at a cost of $80,000 constructed of cement stone blocks, three stories high, with a frontage of seventy-four feet and a depth of one hundred and twelve feet.

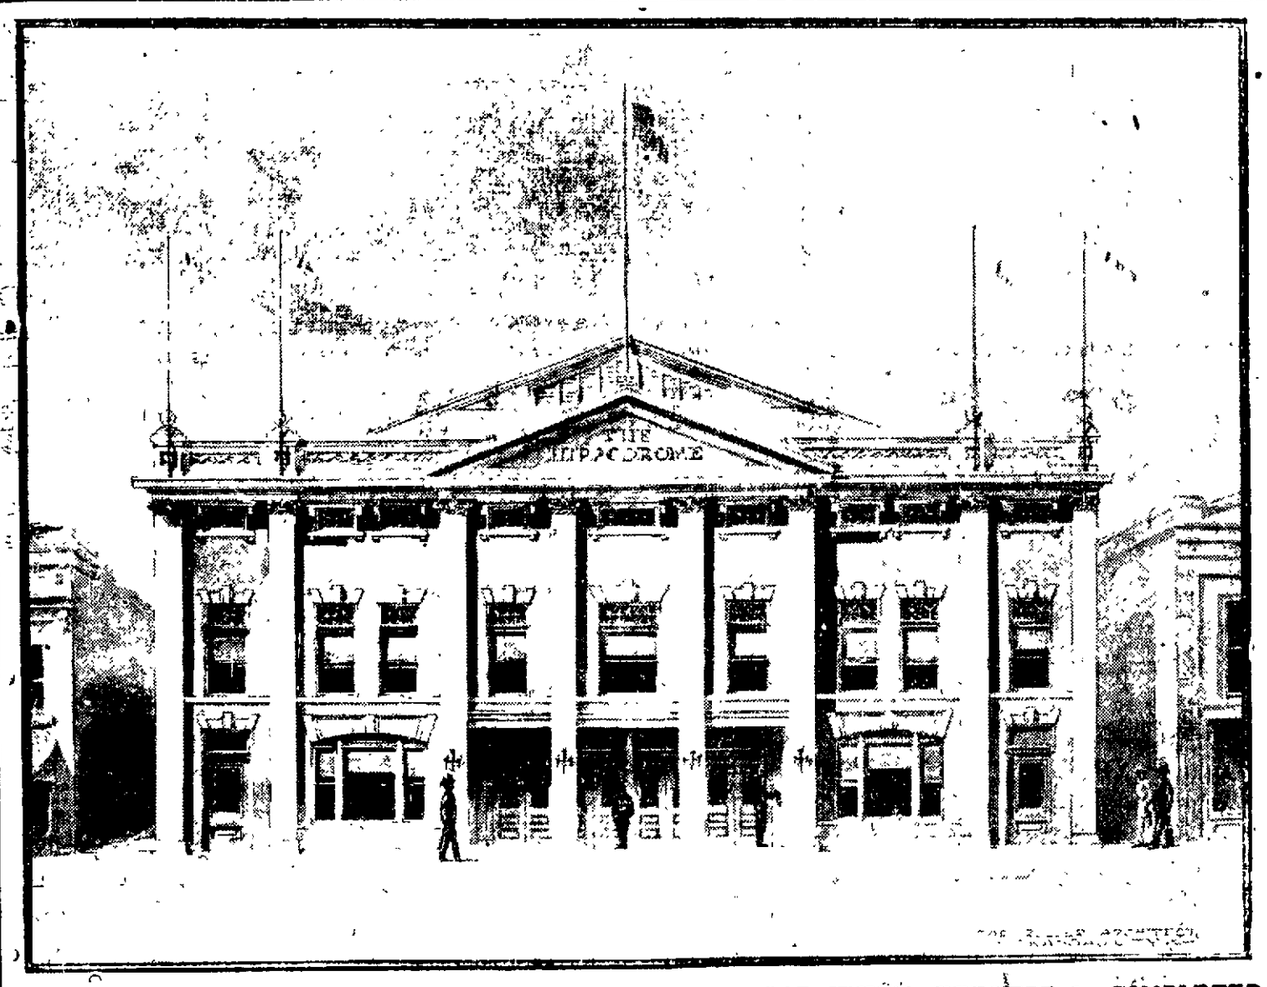

The interior will be handsomely decorated in bright and cheerful colors and the designs will be chaste and modest, the coloring rich and harmonious without gaudiness.

The stage dimensions will be 70 by 30 feet, and will be provided with all the latest "working" features, such as traps, side, center and quarter sectional bridges, sinks, grooves, etc.

A full and complete stock of scenery, drop curtains, asbestos fire curtain, as well as all modern appurtenances for the handling of any kind of attraction, no matter how large, including the large musical comedies, will also be provided.

The theatre will have a seating capacity of 1,500 people. Both auditorium and balcony floors will be on an incline, and opera chairs placed on raised platforms. Large comfortable chairs will be provided for the auditorium and balcony.

The boxes and lodges will be neatly draped and decorated to harmonize with the other decorations of the building.

REPRODUCTION OF FRONT ELEVATION AS IT WILL APPEAR WHEN THEATRE IS COMPLETED

Two of the principal and most important requirements of the modern theatre are its ventilation and fire escapes. A five foot space or alley will be retained on both sides of the house for the purpose of exits, fire escapes and ventilation. All doors will open outwards automatically, by simply pressing a button similar to an electric push.

The construction work will begin on the Reno theatre within thirty days from this date, and will be completed within four months.

The most important feature in connection with a business of this character is the matter of attractions. We are identified with the best vaudeville and dramatic bureaus in the United States; consequently, the best American and European vaudeville acts will be presented in the Reno theatre, and will be operated on strictly approved and legitimate lines, catering to men, women and children.

J. A. Burrichter, general manager of the Nevada Hippodrome Circuit Company, is also connected with several of the large theatre circuits throughout the Northwest, including St. Paul, Minneapolis, Superior and Duluth. He has had twenty years of experience in the theatrical business in all of its branches and is closely allied with the theatrical business throughout the middle west and the eastern part of the United States.

As an INVESTMENT

THE NEVADA HIPPODROME CIRCUIT COMPANY has an authorized capital of $100,000, divided into 20,000 shares of $5.00 each. ::: The Company is now offering for a short time only 10,000 shares of the preferred treasury shares at par value, $5.00 each. The shares are preferred to the extent of receiving all the net profits of the business until the principal of the investment is repaid to the holder, after which time all shares will share and share alike in the profits. The profits will be distributed quarterly. ::: The earning power of this proposition, plans, specifications, and further particulars can be had on application in person or by mail at the offices of the Company.

THE PRICE OF MEAT GOES SOARING HIGH

Hay at $20 May Have Something to Do With It and There May Be Other Things But There's No Question About the Price

The prices of meats have gone up. All retail shops advanced the price of their wares last Monday from two to five cents a pound, and the feeling of the caterers can better be imagined than told. The raise in the prices to restaurants amounts to from two to three cents per pound, and to private families about five cents per pound. According to the retail dealer, this is due to a scarcity of stock, but what should cause the scarcity is beyond his knowledge.

So far the other restaurants and hotels have been standing the raise because there was no way out of the matter, but Sherman and Mitchell of the Palace have taken steps to make it hurt the mas little as possible, by buying stock and having it killed for them, which they say makes the raise somewhat less, but does not entirely do away with it. They have bought seventeen beef cattle, and these will be killed for them as they are needed.

Pork has advanced more than the other kind of meat, having gone up from seven to twelve and a half cents. Veal has advanced to eleven cents with the hide on, and mutton has gone to thirteen cents. These are wholesale prices.

The price of beef has advanced from a much lower figure which cannot be accurately quoted, because of the great many different prices which at all times prevail for various cuts. It is now up to fifteen to eighteen cents.

One reason given for the remarkable advance in prices is due to the increased price of hay, which is now quoted at $20.

TENANT CAN'T FIND NEW HOUSE SO STAYS IN TAYLOR'S

William Gladding was sued in the justice court yesterday by A. J. Taylor for possession of a dwelling house which has been occupied by Gladding since the first of March.

Gladding said he was willing to get out when he could find another house, but had no idea when that would be, and when told that he would be removed by process of law unless he vacated otherwise, did not seem to be at all disturbed by the prospect. He said that he was there very little of the time himself anyway, and that if the women folks could not find a house, let them be put out.

Out of sympathy for the family, Taylor consented to a seven day extension of the time when the judgment was to go into effect, to allow them to find a place to move to.

FUNERAL OF MRS. HAWCROFT

NATIONAL BANK TAXES

National banks in Nevada will be forced to pay taxes, according to the provisions of the bill signed by Governor Sparks. The governor vetoed the measure two years ago, but when it came up this time he approved it. The tax will be collected from the individual stock holders, for by federal law national banks cannot be taxed directly.

THE LATE FRANK CURIEUX SPENT HIS EARLY DAYS IN TUSCARORA

Frank Curieux, whose death in San Francisco was reported in the Journal yesterday, was well known to many of the older residents of the state, especially those of the northwestern portion, where his earlier days were spent. Many of the residents of Tuscarora of twenty years ago will recall him as a boy. Recently he had been engaged in mercantile pursuits at Beewawa, where he was one of the foremost business men.

He leaves a mother and three sisters to mourn his loss, besides a widow and three children. He left an estate valued at about $60,000.

The funeral services will be held at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. H. Smith, at 357 Chestnut street, at two o'clock this afternoon, and interment will be in Masonic cemetery.

MANY FUNERALS

Elmer Lauren Kruse will be buried at eleven o'clock today, Rev. A. G. Sawin officiating.

The remains of Daniel Judge, superintendent of the Westinghouse air brake department of the Southern Pacific Company at Sparks, who died yesterday, were shipped last night to Renobo, Penn.

The funeral of H. L. W. Knox was held yesterday from the residence at 79 Keystone street.

The funeral of Frank Flatz was held from the parlors of Fetters & Durrett.

SPECIALTIES WILL ADD TO PRODUCTION OF MRS. WIGGS

A large advance sale of reserved seats presages a good audience at the presentation of "Mrs. Wigg of the Cabbage Patch" at McKissick's opera house tomorrow night when the local actor-folk who have been diligently training under the direction of Miss Page, will make their initial appearance.

In addition to the play which sparkles with humor and abounds in clever situations of real life, there will be given a number of very interesting specialties in song and dance. The following will be included: "Coon Town Specialty," Gilbert Little John, Bordie Randall, Jim Torrevon; "Pretty as a Pink" song and dance by Lilly Little John; Violin solo, Willie Kroll; Male quartette, Messrs Penny, Nesworth, Hanson and Frohlich, "Spoon With Me," Misses Velma Smith, Mollie Curler, Hazel Bacon, Ann Stroosburg, May Mack, assisted by Ray Penny, "How Grandma Danced the Minuet," Mason Randes and Hattie May, marionettes, Effie Mack and Lola Stoddard.

As rehearsals for the play continue Miss Page and the actors themselves become more assured of the treat they will be able to offer the amusement lovers of Reno. Each one in striving to evoke special praise for his or her part and are doing all in their power to make their role laughable. The play will be presented tomorrow and Friday evenings.

FREE SEEDS PLANTED BY CHILDREN IN THE STREET

UNLESS the city keeps the streets clean and free from moisture Reno's public thoroughfares will be a garden of no mean proportions this spring; for the small boy has taken advantage of the opportunity to procure seeds free, and has scattered them generously over the asphalt and through the mud in wanton pleasure.

The Journal still has a large quantity of seeds, vegetable and some few flower, left, but they will not be given away to children now unless the child brings a note showing for whom they are intended. This precaution is taken to reserve the supply.

CRACKERJACKS ENGAGED FOR THE OVERLANDS' AGGREGATION

Posters were out yesterday for a grand ball to be given by the Overland baseball team at Wheelmen's hall April 5. The members of Reno's diamond aggregation are making arrangements for this affair, and they will open the season socially by one of the greatest "blow outs" ever held here. The Oberon orchestra will furnish the music.

The latest sporting talk is that Waterbury, the idol of the north, will play with the Overlands. Waterbury has starred with the Coast League, and he has played more outlaw and brush ball than any other man in the game. He is now holding a government job at Vallejo.

Joe Thomas of Sacramento, Los Angeles, Oakland, Marysville and every place where there is a ball fan, will be in the box for the Overlands with Westall. Thomas will arrive here to open the season against the Grass Valley Giants April 14.

SOME HORSE TALK

Considerable horse talk is being heard this spring, which takes everything from a plow to a trotter, and there seems to be some ground for the talk, owing to market conditions. San Francisco is a ready buyer, and this fact has tended to raise the price of horse flesh in the western market. Among the local importers of stock here, are McNeil, who has shipped several cars of fine draft horses from Colorado, Grimmins, who has unloaded some good ones Muller who has brought some fancy trotters to the market, and Bowers who has brought some very fine looking stock for breeding purposes.

THE HALLIDAY DIVORCE

Jack Halliday and his wife, Ethel B. Halliday will soon be the chief actors in a drama before the district court here. Yesterday Attorneys Dodge and Knight filed a proof of the publication of summons on behalf of the plaintiff, J. E. Halliday.

The publication was made in a local weekly, and the cause for the divorce as stated there, although the complaint is sealed, was given as desertion for more than a year. Neither of the parties to the suit for divorce has returned to this city as yet. The case will probably come up for trial about April 10.

WRETCHED STREETS CAUSE COMPLAINT

People Object to Getting Shoes Muddy in Order to Board Street Cars and There Is Annoyance About Crossing East of the Depot

The condition of the streets in the northern part of the city is complained about by the citizens of that quarter, who ask, pathetically, if anything could be worse. In many places one cannot board a street car without wading in mud to the shoe tops. Many are walking on this account who would otherwise ride.

The condition of the street crossing at the east end of the depot is complained about, too, by those who use it, as something crying for a remedy. There the mud between the tracks makes it almost impossible to pull anything like a load, as the mud between the rails is so deep. The asphalt pavement is being damaged, too, by the mud thrown upon it by wheels and feet.

THE SCHOOL QUESTION INTERESTS ALL

SPANISH SPRINGS WOULD LIKE AGAIN TO HAVE PUBLIC SCHOOL

G. N. Clute was in from the Spanish Springs country yesterday, and was busy trying to get the public school for his district re-established. The school was discontinued four or five years ago, as there were not enough children in the district to make it eligible.

The population of Spanish Springs has increased since then, however, and as there are now the requisite number of children, the county commissioners will be petitioned for the maintenance of a public school.

WADSWORTH VOTES WELL ON THE SCHOOL TAX QUESTION

Notice of a favorable vote on the proposition to levy a special tax of fifty cents on the $100 for the use of the schools of Wadsworth was filed in the office of Clerk Fogg yesterday. Eighteen ayes and one no were recorded on the vote.

Wadsworth needs additional school facilities. The citizens are willing to pay for them and the permission of the county commissioners was procured for the purposes of holding an election.

The Real President

THIS time. Theodore Roosevelt's "You're a liar" has produced an emphatic response. The president of the United States has conclusively demonstrated that, whether he asked E. H. Harriman to raise money for the Republican campaign or not, he was in close political relationship with the arch-chief of Wall street.

This intimacy cannot be denied. The published correspondence proves it beyond the remotest question.

What a charlatan our president is. Here he was raving like a demagog in public whenever the railway question was mentioned. He was the people's defender. He would force the railroads to thive. Oh, yes, indeed, he wouldn't do a thing to the dreadfully wicked corporations. Why, whenever the word railway was mentioned, if a correspondent was around, Theodore would shake his mane, show his teeth and snort—"The earth shook and trembled; the foundations of it were moved and shook because he was wroth; there went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it."

But all this was in public, on the front steps of the White House, with the people looking on.

And in private—

Oh, dear sakes alive, can it be Harriman? That's what. That dark shadow gliding up the backsteps of the executive mansion was Harriman, the controller of corporations, the chief of monopolists, the king of manipulators, the archduke of trusts, the man who was being denounced by Roosevelt in stentorian tones. Harriman, the monopolist, the man who was preventing legislation, "buying up congress and buying up the judiciary," was the president's intimate friend and adviser, cordially invited to go to Washington and himself to dine with Roosevelt, urged to advise the president.

Here this country had placed Theodore Roosevelt upon a pedestal and had bowed down before him. To be sure there was some clay in the feet of the image and from time to time there were people who declared that the whole thing was bogus, but such persons were frowned upon and pushed back into the outskirts of the crowd.

And now the image has been overthrown. It lies in the dust. What a fall was there, my countrymen!"

There is no way out of the dilemma. Roosevelt, supposed ultra champion of the people against the railroads, proved to have been upon the most intimate terms with Harriman, who would destroy the people's right to control the commanders if he could. Roosevelt was not only receiving advice from Harriman, but actually seeking it, and when Harriman was difficult about giving it, we find Roosevelt urging him to come to the White House and give him the benefit of Harriman's counsel.

Deceit—nothing but deceit from beginning to end!

It may be said that Roosevelt did not take Harriman's advice, any way. But what right had Harriman to think that the president would take it? Just read the synopsis of the correspondence and there it will be seen that Harriman possessed the right because Roosevelt asked him for counsel—ASKED it, BEGGED it.

And that is the kind of a president the United States has in Theodore Roosevelt, President? By the vote of the electoral college entitled to the name, of course, but the letters show that the real president of the United States was, and always will be under a Republican administration EDWARD H. HARRIMAN.

The Chicago Election

EFFORTS will be made to persuade the people that the result of the Chicago election has something to do with the national issues of railway control, but this will not be correct. The people of Chicago have demanded a better street-car service for years and Judge Dunne, when elected, promised to give it to them. He talked large about forcing the traction companies to sell out to the city and he pledged himself to relieve the municipality in many ways.

Not one of these promises has been kept. On the contrary, the traction situation is worse than ever. Dunne proved himself to be a four-flusher, a false alarm.

Another factor that entered into the election was that of human interest. In a recent accident on the Pennsylvania railway, Busse was severely injured. He has been an invalid. That sort of thing counts and Busse unquestionably received a large sympathetic vote.

But national issues never appeared in the Chicago municipal campaign. Though the short-sightedness of A. M. Lawrence, Mr. Hearst's managing editor in Chicago, led to an effort on Dunne's part to make the voters imagine that J. P. Morgan, E. H. Harriman, Thomas F. Ryan and August Belmont, in some mysterious way, had a personal interest in the result. Mr. Lawrence, as he had previously in San Francisco, proved that he was not a good political manager. His fundamental principle in politics is that the people are fools. They are not. Sometimes they may be misled, but, as a rule, they understand and they make few errors.

Chicago's political campaign has been bitterly personal. It is to be hoped that this is not a foretaste of we are to expect in the national canvass of next year. If so, we offer this suggestion: mud throwing in politics usually results in bemiring the thrower. If the Democratic party can compel its opponents to behave decently, let us have a clean campaign and let it be clean in any event, as far as Democracy is concerned.

A Plaza Lawn

THE Journal wishes to call attention to the fact that the old boxcars in the Plaza that have been an eyesore for years, were removed by the Southern Pacific Company yesterday. This paper a few weeks ago drew attention in this column to the need of removing the cars and suggested that the railroad people were imposing upon the city in maintaining them there. The suggestion was evidently received in good part for the cars are gone. The people of Reno feel grateful for this prompt action.

It is now the duty of the city to see that the Plaza, thus vacated, is made attractive. The place was originally intended for a public park and such to be made the most of. There should be a green lawn to catch the eye of the traveler. There ought to be trees.

Who will make the beginning? It may be urged that to keep trees in condition and to see that a lawn is maintained at its best will cost money. Probably so, but Reno can afford it and the expense will not be high. In other cities there are organizations that undertake to plant trees. Let such an association be formed here and let the city government buy the seed for the grass. And then get busy.

Now is the time to start the lawn. If we wait too long it will be too late. Get at the ground. Plow it and see that the work is done right.

And do it NOW.

said that it was a $7,000,000 plant and that over one-third of it was destroyed. It was the main lighting plant which distributed power to all the sub-stations in the city. Mr. Britton stated that while it would take a considerable time to duplicate much of the valuable machinery, the city lighting system would be connected with the company's mountain reserve power lines in Yuba and Sacramento counties and hoped to have the greater part of the city lighted by tomorrow night.

GOLDFIELD MINERS WILL MEET OWNERS

At the Meeting of the Union Last Night a Committee Was Appointed to Confer With Proprietors

GOLDFIELD, Nev., April 2.—Extraordinary efforts were put forth tonight to effect a settlement of the labor troubles. Governor Sparks and United States Senator Nixon arrived here today, the latter of whom with George Wingfield, has the largest mining interests in the camp. Governor Sparks has acted as mediator once before and then effected the settlement of the last labor disputes. He was in consultation all day with the leaders of the miners. A committee from the miners met the executive committee of the mine owners association late this evening.

Tonight the miners held their regular meeting and installed the new officers elected a week ago.

The visit of the state's chief executive to Goldfield at this particular time is the result of an invitation extended to him by those representing the mine owners, who are laboring most earnestly for a settlement of existing difficulties.

The governor spent last night in Tonopah and there held a conference with representatives of the mine owning interests in the Goldfield district.

This conference was subsequent to another held yesterday between representatives of the mine owners and the special committee which was appointed one week ago last evening at the meeting of the Miners' Union. At the latter conference the attitude of the mine owners was made clear to the representatives of the miners.

The Miners' Union tonight appointed a committee of five to wait upon the Business Men's and Mine Owners' Association to confer regarding a settlement of the present labor trouble. This is considered as the first move toward a settlement of the difficulty that resulted in the shutdown of all the mines in the district. While it is not claimed that a settlement is probable within the next few days, the action of the miners' union tonight is generally considered as a long step toward a solution of the present difficulty. The executive committee of the business men and mine owners' association met tonight but in the absence of any communication from the miners, no action was taken. A satisfactory solution of the labor trouble is generally expected within the next few days.

udice against lawyers and whether they thought Judge Dunne really believed that Ruef had ever been a fugitive from justice; whether they were prejudiced against political bosses or the union labor party, and whether, if the court rulings showed the judge's animosity, would that prejudice them against Ruef.

The process of jury-getting was frequently enlivened by clashes of counsel out of which sprang keen retorts, and by flashes of unconscious humor struck from talesmen by questions put. Juror Bradstreet early in the afternoon session fastened curious attention upon himself by the vehemence with which he expressed his disinclination to eventually sit in the jury box. He declared that he thought he could better employ his time by attending to his business and looking out for his wife and babies than by "sitting here listening to this case."

Reminded by Prosecutor Johnson that he owed also a duty to the municipality, the juror retorted: "Yes, but my duty is to my family first. I can't make a living here."

At another point in his examination Bradstreet provoked a wave of merriment by replying thus to the question whether he had had any acquaintance with the keeper of a certain fashionable French restaurant:

"No, I haven't. Yes, I have too. One day in 1878 or 1879 I went out and caught a lot of bullfrogs and took them down to his place and sold them to him. I had that acquaintance with the man. But I don't want to serve on this case."

By the time the talesman was finished with, several of his fellow jurors were wiping the tears of laughter from their eyes, and it was with difficulty the bailiffs kept order in the court.

NOTARIES-PUBLIC

Washoe county has fifty-two notaries-public, according to the records on file at the office of Clerk Fogg. These notaries will be increased considerably by the law passed by the last legislature allowing the governor to name as many more as may apply for the appointment.

Ramsey Bonanza Gold Mining Co.

ONE of the most promising properties in the famous Ramsey District.

It consists of six full claims located in the RAMSEY MINING DISTRICT near the town of Ramsey.

Already there has been more than 360 feet of actual development work gone on these claims consisting of two shafts on the ledge matter besides crosscutting. This is the famous Bennett group, and has been systematically developed so far under careful management.

The ore is free milling and the outlook is for one of the greatest properties in Nevada.

Roads have been built and the property is in shape for the installment of machinery, and in order to do this the company has decided to place a limited amount of treasury stock on the market at 20 cents a share. Only 25,000 shares will be sold now, so you will have to hurry—the people of Ramsey and vicinity who know the property are clamoring for the stock.

From the strikes already made in the Ramsey Comstock and other mines it is certain that Ramsey will be a high-grade camp not surpassed by any in the State. Get your subscription in early to

HAPPENINGS FROM SPARKS

ORATORICAL FIREWORKS WERE LET OFF AT SPARKS LAST NIGHT

Nominations for City Offices Began But a Maelstrom of Eloquence Dragged Everything in and Left Uncertainty as to What Was Done and What Was Not

What looked like a real live political convention could have been seen last night at the city hall in Sparks any time between 7:30 and eleven o'clock. And what will probably be remembered as the greatest display of oratorical fireworks could never have been witnessed at any time during the performance.

The occasion was the result of an invitation by the city council to the citizens to meet and discuss municipal conditions and indorse candidates for the various offices to be filled at the coming city election. At 7:30 Acting Mayor Pollock called the convention to order and stated the purpose of the meeting. Then the astute city dad did a mean trick. He decided with all the formality of an election that he should be chairman, thereby putting the machine entirely and completely out of commission.

One of the great pleasures of an assembled convention is to elect a chairman and hear that august official spout upon taking the exalted seat. But the convention last night was robbed of the pleasure by the machine method of the acting mayor. Not to insinuate that the acting mayor belongs to a machine. As some one put it, it was not a machine but a wheelbarrow.

Nominations were immediately declared in order and Frank Hatton and Mr. Pollock were named. It was then determined to nominate for all offices and elect by ballot, each ballot to contain the name of one candidate for each office to be filled.

Candidates H. C. Mulcahy and George Robison were nominated for city clerk.

Every man in town who made any pretensions at being a lawyer was nominated for city attorney. There were four of them, including the present city attorney, Stewart, Judge Fletcher and Judge Doley.

W. R. Shober, Charles Martin and Jack Barrett were nominated for council from the second ward. F. G. Taft was the only candidate named by the third.

The balloting began and the men receiving the majority votes for the several offices are as follows:

Frank Hatton for mayor. H. C. Mulcahy and George Robison were neck and neck for clerk, each receiving twenty-three votes. Stewart received the plurality for city attorney. Shober was the choice for councilman from the second yard and Taft won out in the third ward.

Then it was that Z. P. Mackabee, the machine boss and a Tammany graduate, arrived and started something. After being informed what the deliberations to date had been, he demurred to further proceedings unless a councilman should be nominated from the first ward.

Many opinions upon the legality of the proceedings of the council in not providing for an election in the first were given by the laymen present. Then the learned lawyers took a hand and all the spectators at the trial of Nora Bary never witnessed a more fiery contest than thereupon ensued.

The arguments were wonderfully astute and would have bothered any court to follow. City Attorney Stewart defended the action of the council and Judges Fletcher and Dale opposed. Who won out is still a question and groups of men could be seen at an early hour this morning still trying to decide.

The question was as to whether the present councilman from the first, being and appointee by the council, to take the place made vacant by the resignation of C. A. Bremer, until the "next regular general city election" should be called a hold-over. The charter is plain in the matter, the only question being, does the charter mean what it says or something else.

The debate did not end. From a dignified body, listening attentively to the eloquent speaker on the floor the convention retrograded until it became a regular quilting bee where everybody talks at once.

Several motions were made. One provided that a councilman should be nominated for the first and his right to a place on the ballot be tested by mandamus proceeding. Another motion provided that the ticket nominated should be called the citizens' ticket, but no motions were put to a vote.

A parliamentary question arose and the convention discovered that it had no chairman whatsoever, and so no standing before the rules of Roberts, who counsel everybody adjourned at once without motion or malice.

SUIT FOR WORK

The Borden-Shannon Construction Company, suing the Nye & Ormsby County Bank, was answered yesterday by the attorneys for the defendants. The contractors say they agreed to renovate the interior of the bank on Center street, for which they were to be paid $1700; they allege that only $850 was ever paid.

The bank in turn replies that the work was not done properly, not finished at the time agreed, and that the material was not of a quality warranting such a charge being made.

Harry Allen has severed his connection with the Robison Mercantile Company, expecting to find remunerative employment in Reno.

Mrs. H. E. Hulz, from Bloomington, Ill., has joined her husband in Sparks. Mrs. Hulz has the right kind of enthusiasm, declaring herself agreeably impressed with the division city.

Mr. Grace is confined to his bed with an attack of pneumonia. The doctor in attendance hopes to check the disease before it becomes serious.

Mr. F. Cummings and family are stopping for a few days at the Hotel Snyder. One of the little girls of the family was taken sick while on the way to Lake View, Oregon, compelling the family to stop over.

Thomas McGlynn of San Francisco, late of Dawson, is in town with his partner from Rossland. They are preparing to engage in business in the new mining camp which they declare to be the coming camp of the state. Mr. McGlynn's partner was formerly owner of the Tuxedo in Portland, Oregon.

A dollar an hour to dig post holes was the standing bid of Mr. Herberth, but no takers in all sparks. Mr. Herberth dug the holes himself and is several dollars richer. A dollar an hour is pretty big pay and yet a man is not looking occasionally to ask for a raise to buy a cup of coffee.

Machinist Cosby was struck on the head by a slipping piston litter yesterday while at work in the shops, receiving an ugly wound. Dr. Metcalf dressed the injury but the man will not be able to resume duties for some time. Had the heavy machine struck him squarely there would have been far more serious results.

Frank O'Connor returned yesterday from San Francisco where he has been visiting his wife and first born, a daughter, ten days of age. He is receiving the congratulations of the boys. Mr. O'Connor says that San Francisco in the vicinity of our old home, Twenty-second and Mission, is beginning to look like a Coney Island. A magnificent theater is being constructed, besides the one already there, that will seat over two thousand people. All sorts of amusement resorts are springing into existence and values are going up fabulously. One corner that went begging at $600 after the fire now earns a rental of $12,500. The Valencia street station formerly despised by the Southern Pacific has become a miniature Grand Central. Mr. O'Connor is enthusiastic over his family and the prospects in San Francisco. Besides tales of fabulous fortunes that are being made daily he has a good dog story to tell and started to tell it, but just at the moment the politicians broke in looking for a majority and dragged the man and the story away.

WRECKER CALLED OUT

The wrecker was called out Monday night to the scene of a small accident near Lovelock. Two cars jumped the track, causing some damage and considerable delay.

There have been quite a number of small derailments lately, but they have been of minor consequence and the two divisions have for a long time escaped a serious wreck.

New York Stocks

Prices made in London early today after a triple holiday were much higher than where they left off on Thursday and the tone was firm. These early prices in London were regarded as largely nominal and the support in the local market here had no difficulty in bringing quotations well over last night's level. From this restored level of the market that the movement became wavering and uncertain again. There was no immediate development in affairs to account for this action and it is attributed largely to technical causes. The relaxation, too, was marked and practically universal here and abroad. In London the private discount rate dropped to below the bank rate for the first time in many weeks. New York bankers secured $2,500,000 of gold in London without bidding higher than the prevailing rate.

SPEAKS WELL OF NEVADA AND HER MINES

ATTORNEY STEVENSON OF DENVER TALKS OF VISIT

Loud in His Praises of Nevada As a Mineral State and Thinks Well of Reno and Her Citizens and Improvements

Attorney A. M. Stevenson of Denver who recently spent a few days in Reno while on a tour of the state combining business with his review of the many mining districts, is very enthusiastic about Nevada and her mines. In an interview published in the Denver Republican after his return he says:

"There never has been another region like it in the world. It is no wonder that there has been some wild-catting there, because the real facts are so astonishing that it is difficult to distinguish between what is true and what is not true. I could cite you dozens of instances where young lawyers, stenographers, and others, from Denver, have made immense fortunes there in perfectly legitimate ways, and there seems to be no reason why others should not do the same. It is a fact which cannot be too strongly emphasized that the mining industry and mining stocks are far more legitimate business than the Wall street stock jobbing which is ruining thousands of people all over the country every year.

"I visited Tonopah, Goldfield, Reno and the Olinghouse district north of Reno, among other places. The Olinghouse district is being worked very successfully. They are putting up mills there now and shipping ore right along. The Pea Vine district, twenty miles north of Reno is worth mention. It has showed some very good properties lately. The Wonder country is also a good substantial country. In my private opinion the Yerington district, east and south of Reno is going to be the great permanent camp. That is only a personal guess, however.

"Reno is a good town, a fine town. It is clean, and nice, and well built, with wide streets, all well paved and a bridge over the Truckee river that would do credit to a town of a half a million population. The buildings are substantial and handsome and the people alert and confident in the future of the town and the surrounding country. They feel that they are the real center of the greatest mining district, and they are.

The Highland Boy Mining Company, which recently started development work on their ground in the Keane Wonder section, opened a shoot of ore on the Highland Ladd claim that assayed $23 in gold. Some good stuff has also been cut in the Gold Lead claim.

A new shaft has been started on the Federal Ely Company's property in Ely district. The point of operations this time is midway between the two present blowouts and about 500 feet away from the first workings. The shaft will be sunk to a vertical depth of 400 feet, but it is expected that after the 100 foot level has been passed the ore body will warrant expensive lateral operations. The Guggenheim experts recently inspected the property and it is their opinion that the new shaft will expose a better body of ore for value and more convenient for working facilities than any yet opened on the company's holdings. It was also their opinion that the new shaft would strike its richest ore values at a depth of about 130 feet.

NOTICE POOL STOCK HOLDERS

Cash will be paid for pool stock certificates in mining companies whose stocks are active on San Francisco exchange. Address, Investor, Box 200, 1552 Broadway, New York. m6eod

MINING NOTES

After much delay reports from Rhyolite state that the spur tracks of the Las Vegas railroad will be completed to the Montgomery Shoshone mine within a few days.

Dorr, McDonald & Company, brokers of Rhyolite, have sold a controlling interest in the Inyo Canyon Gold Mining Company whose property is located in Echo Canyon to Minneapolis capitalists.

Some good rock has been produced from the bottom of the twenty-five foot shaft in the Theresa group of claims in Echo Canyon. The ledge is two feet wide and the owners expect to find a large ore body when the shaft reaches the depth of 100 feet. This property adjoins the Inyo Gold holdings.

Things are forging forward at a rapid pace in the Skidoo district, and several important strikes have been made in the camp the past week. The latest development is the uncovering of a new ledge on the property of the Granite Contact Mines Company. The ledge was found while doing some trenching on claim No. 4, and there is two feet of ore, assays from which have brought values of $192.50 to the ton. The rock is identical with the rock in the Skidoo tunnel.

What promises to be another bonanza red metal proposition has been started in the Yerington district. The Yerington Nipper Copper Company, incorporated by Salt Lake operators have started active operations on their property located between the Ironsides and Ludwig properties in that district. Work at the present time is being confined to surface exploration and the ore exposed to the sunshine is sufficient to warrant the company's plans for deeper developments which will be prosecuted soon.

FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD.

THIS WILL INTEREST EVERY RESIDENT OF RENO.

You can readily verify the following particulars, for the gentleman supplying them will be only too pleased to answer any inquiries by mail. If you suffer from disorder of the kidneys or bladder and desire to be cured write him about Doan's Kidney Pills and learn that the following statement is true in every particular:

James Brannigan, Jr., corner Pine and Cottage streets, Nevada City, Cal., says: "Some three years ago when prospecting for myself in company with others, early in the evening, when on night shift I wrenched my back on a car, and about ten o'clock it was so painful I had to return home. A lady induced me to use Doan's Kidney Pills. I took her advice, took the pills as directed and only lost half a shift before I was able to commence work. Since then I have always spoken to a number of people about Doan's Kidney Pills, and my advice at the present time to anyone suffering from backache is to go for Doan's Kidney Pills and the result obtained from their use will not be disappointing.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

MOUNTAIN CEDAR MINE HAS ITS HISTORY

FORMER LA PLATTE MINE HAS RESUMED OPERATIONS

This Old Mine Abandoned Because Funds gave Out Was Once the Famous Property in the Times When La Platte Was Active Camp

Chloride, or old La Platte, is coming into its own. The history of the La Platte mine is replete with interest. In the early '60s, in war times, La Platte was an active camp. Hon. Benjamin Curler was then district attorney. His only son, B. F., the retiring district judge, was born at La Platte. A mining company was then working the La Platte mine. This is now known as the Mountain Cedar mine. It is now owned and controlled by Judge Curler, Dr. Bell and their associates, and is being opened according to the latest approved mining methods under the supervision of a first-class miner. In early days, this mine was a producer of rich ore. It made quite a record. All of a sudden the shaft run into country rock and those operating the mine knew not what was the matter or what to do. They groped about in the dark for a time and finally became discouraged, run out of money and La Platte dwindled away and died a natural death. In these latter days mining men know better the nature of faults, and when Judge Curler saw the ground and took a competent geologist to examine it, it required but little study to say where the ledge would be found. Under the proper directions the ledge was found forty-five feet from the old fault, and the ledge matter exceedingly rich and strong. Churchill county now has another producer in the Mountain Cedar, and here's wishing La Platte the success its new owners merit.

REWARD

A reward of five dollars will be given for information leading to the discovery of the persons guilty of carrying away six posts and cutting the fence wires surrounding the property near the cattle bridge. If any one is caught cutting said wire he will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

WHAT ARE BANK MONEY ORDERS?

We take this method of calling your attention to Bank Money Orders, a new feature in banking which we are introducing. You will find them the most convenient as well as the safest and cheapest way of sending small amounts of money to other cities in payment of bills, subscriptions to papers, etc. They are absolutely safe and are PAYABLE EVERYWHERE.

You do not have to write out an application for them, and you get a receipt for each one purchased. Should an order be lost, you are not required to give a bond and wait six months for a duplicate, but the bank will issue you a duplicate whenever the original is lost or destroyed. The cost is much less than either Postoffice or Express Orders, and they are not discounted when paid. Orders are issued for any amount from One Cent to One Hundred Dollars.

RAILROAD GOES THROUGH YERINGTON PROPERTIES

Under the recent railroad franchise bill, which has been passed by the legislature, and signed by Governor Sparks, the Southern Pacific will soon construct the road from Schurz to Yerington.

This means that a railroad will in the near future be in operation through the valuable properties of the Yerington Red Metal Mining Company, of which E. F. Adams is the general manager, with offices in the Masonic Temple building.

Many people interested in copper may not know that values as high as 50 per cent have been obtained in this property, with an immense body of ore already blocked out. Rich values are being run into every few days. A hoist has been ordered and will arrive during the coming week. Flattering reports come from the superintendent in charge, and with the result that the Yerington Red Metal is commanding considerable attention.

UNDER TWO TREES IN THE TENDERLOIN IS HIS HOME

"DOC" Reinhart, as he is known to a large number of people, hails, at some remote period of time, from Massachusetts. That much evidence concerning his past, cloudy to even himself, most of the time, is gleaned from the registration books of last year, together with other interesting data concerning his more recent life.

Among this later information is found the statement of residence at the time the entry was made.

"Under two trees in the tenderloin."

So far as is known his present habitation is the same as it was then, if someone has not been so unfeeling as to cut the trees down; and that he sleeps at times standing may be inferred from the fact that during the recent floods he came to the police station one night and said that he was looking for a place to get in out of the wet. He exhibited his feet and legs wet to a little above the knees, which he said had got in that condition by the rising waters while he was asleep.

HEDDEN APPLIED TO THE SUPREME COURT FOR HABEAS WRIT

James F. Hedden and Auditor Lyon of the Tonopah & Goldfield railroad passed through Reno yesterday on their way to Carson City, where they will attend the hearing of the application of the former for a writ of habeas corpus. Hedden was arrested at Hawthorne on a charge of contempt of court, for not producing the books of the railroad in the defendant's trial on a perjury charge.

The attorneys for the T. & G. will attempt to prove to the supreme court today that if Hedden showed the books to Judge Langan in Esmeralda county he would be incriminating himself. The argument for a writ of habeas corpus will be on constitutional grounds.

COUNTY RAISES $20,000 NEEDED FOR BRIDGES

Recent Storm Cost That Much Money at Least in Damage Done to Thoroughfares Everywhere and Commissioners Had to Raise the Funds

A temporary loan of $20,000, borrowed under the direction of the state board of revenue, will be made by Washoe county for the purpose of making immediate repairs to the roads and bridges ruined by the great storm. A resolution providing for this loan was passed by the county commissioners. The money will be raised because there is not a sufficient sum in the road fund now to carry out the work.

The commissioners from the different districts report damages to roads and bridges worse than ever reported before. Traffic over some of the roads has been entirely blocked by the absence of crossings on streams, and washed out roads.

The commissioners took this action in the absence of a bond issue to provide for permanent repairs to the roads of the county. The act allowing the issuance of bonds was killed in the legislature, and the money for the purpose will have to be raised by temporary loans.

Clerk Fogg was requested by the commissioners to notify the Peoples Drain Ditch Company, Julia A. Blaisdel, and the North Truckee Ditch Company to make repairs to the bridges and roads between Glendale and Vista. If the repairs are not made as requested, the county will undertake the work and charge the damages to the owners mentioned.

HINES, PRESTON AND SMITH GUARDED AT STATE PRISON

Hines, Preston and Smith remain protected by the guards at the state prison, and the dange rof a jail delivery at Hawthorne is past. The prisoners charged with murder and taken away for safe keeping, were quartered in the county jail in Reno on the trip. The guards said "They (the prisoners) are not socialists, they are anarchists." A careful watch was therefore kept over them.

Murphy, one of the guards, stated to Deputy Sheriff Maxwell here that there are still twenty-eight of the southern country criminals in custody at Hawthorne. He said that the jail there is not strong in the least, and that if an attempt were made to set one man free, all would escape. He said the feeling there runs high and that all precautions are being taken to event trouble.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, April 2.—Dullness is the feature of the wool market with prices in practically all grades holding firm. The volume of sales of territorial wools have been small. The majority of buyers have their immediate wants supplied. Pulled wools are steady. Foreign grades are firm.

DEMOCRATS CARRY LEADVILLE

LEADVILLE, Col., April 2.—Dr. H. C. Rose, Democrat, was re-elected mayor here today by 500 majority. The Democrats elected four aldermen, city clerk and treasurer by small majorities.

The Republicans elected two aldermen. The issue was "home versus gambling" with the Republicans taking the home end.

COUNTY INSURANCE

Washoe county's court house is insured for $50,000, the fixtures for $1500 and the county hospital frame building for $1000, according to the renewal of policy order made recently. The insurance runs out on April 17, and at that time County Clerk Fogg will insure again.

THE COLTON WRECK

COLTON, Cal., April 2—The verdict of the coroner's jury summoned to investigate the wreck at Colton last Thursday in which twenty-three people lost their lives, and nearly a hundred more were injured, is that the foreman of the switching crew and his assistant were responsible through criminal negligence, and the engineer o fthe overland train was guilty of negligence through running too fast. The Southern Pacific is censured for operating the frail cars in which many of the Italian immigrants were killed.

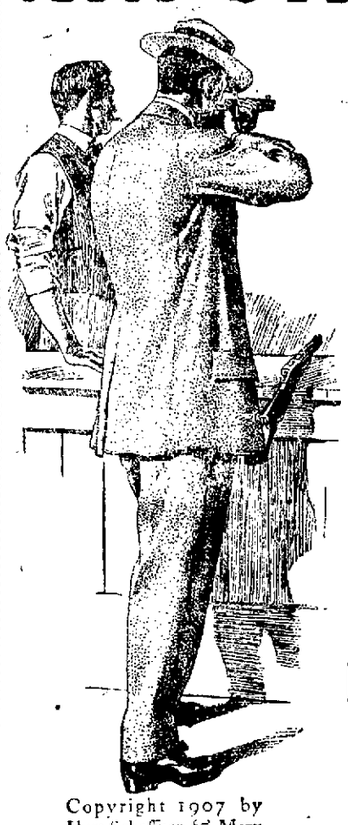

TAGGART'S PLANS

D. S. Taggart went to Carson City yesterday, and when he returned he stated to the Journal that he was offered a place as secretary to the publicity commission. He said Chairman Davis made him the offer, but he has not yet decided whether he will take the position. In his newspaper last night Davis stated that Taggart could have the secretaryship if he wants it. The Reno man is undecided yet on future plans. He may go into the southern country, and join the mining promoters there.

SECRET ULTIMATUM IS

By the Railway Managers' Association Agents

ISSUED TO TRAIN MEN

Today Will Determine Strike

CHICAGO, April 2.—Commissioners Knapp and Neil were in conference until midnight with the general managers and it was said after the meeting ended that the railway officials had issued an ultimatum to the men which was to be final.

The nature of this proposition could not be learned tonight, the commissioners deeming it advisable to present it to the men's representatives before making it public.

WONDER MAN IS ARRESTED FOR IDAHO LAND FRAUDS

FEDERAL SECRET AGENT CAPTURES HIM AT LAST

Two Year Hunt for Guilty Is Rewarded by Finding Attorney in Nevada

John Kinkaid, who went into Wonder district two months ago, was spirited from this state yesterday by federal secret service agents and taken to Boise, Idaho, to face a charge of defrauding the government of public lands.

The detectives have worked for two years on the case, and after fastening alleged evidence of the crime on Kinkaid, they stated that the case is one of the most important ever brought to light, involving some of the most prominent people in Idaho and for which several will spend their days in the penitentiary.

Kinkaid is charged with being an accomplice in the commission of the frauds. He was taken from Wonder during the afternoon, brought here on the evening train, and then started for Ogden in chains for the remainder of the trip.

Kinkaid went to Wonder as an attorney. He was bright, well appearing, and made many friends. His arrest came as a great surprise to those with whom he was associated.

The Idaho land frauds are said to have extended over a long period, and to include thousands of acres now held by private parties.

SAN FRANCISCO WITHOUT LIGHT OR ELECTRIC POWER

FIRE LAST NIGHT PUT THE CITY IN DARKNESS

Theatre's Had to Close and the Jail Was Surrounded by Armed Guards

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2—The destruction of the electric light and power house of the San Francisco Gas & Electric Company at Twenty-second avenue and Georgia street by fire tonight plunged almost the entire city into darkness, resulting in the injury of five firemen, at least one of whom will die, and caused a loss estimated at $1,000,000. The firemen are in the Potrero emergency hospital seriously injured by being caught under falling walls when the building unexpectedly collapsed.

The destroyed power house was the principal electric light and power plant of the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company and furnished the electric light for the larger portion of the city. Virtually the entire city with the exception of the water front and a section south of Folsom street, which are furnished by the power house at Spear and Folsom streets, is in darkness so far as electric light is concerned.

The destroyed plant furnished the power for nearly all the street lights and as a result practically all the streets are in darkness, including Fillmore and Van Ness Avenue in the new business section. Several street car lines are tied up.

Out of the nine leading theatres, six could give no performance, the Novelty, Orpheum and Central being the only play houses which have gas lights for emergency purposes while the Chutes theatre obtained electric power from the United Railroads. All the minor theatres and other places of amusement and several of the principal restaurants were in total darkness all night.

Extra police were placed on duty at the temporary hall of justice and city prison at Eddy and Mason streets. Owing to the darkness, the building having no gas connections, no one was allowed to enter or leave the city prison and no prisoners were released on bail.

J. A. Britton, president of the San Francisco Gas and Electric Company, estimated the loss at $2,500,000. He

HARRIMAN'S AID GIVEN ROOSEVELT

To Shake Down the Big Corporations in 1904 the Railway Man Says

ROOSEVELT GIVES HARRIMAN THE LIE

Positive Proof of Republican Corruption

WASHINGTON, April 2.—The greatest political sensation of many years was caused today, first bby E. H. Harriman's letter, published in Chicago, in which he declared plainly and without equivocation that President Roosevelt had requested him to raise funds to carry New York in 1904 for the Repubblican party, whose candidate for president he then was, and second by President Roosevelt's hot-headed reply, followed tonight by Harriman's rejoinder.

Harriman's charge is deliberate. Roosevelt's reply is headstrong and reveals close relations between the railway promoter and the president, notwithstanding the denial of the actual raising of money. The correspondence proves convincingly the close relation between the Republican party and the money kings of Wall street.

Roosevelt calls Harriman a deliberate liar in as plain language as the president of the United States could use with any regard, whatever, for the dignity of his office. Harriman's intention is as plain in return.

HARRIMAN'S LETTER

The statement of Harriman became public through the publication in Chicago of a letter from Harriman to Sidney Webster, a lawyer of New York and brother-in-law of Stuyvesant Fish, dated in December, 1905, in regard to the insurance investigation that was then occupying public attention.

In the letter, Harriman says he was called to Washington by Roosevelt just before the election of 1904, when it looked as if New York would go Democratic and Roosevelt would be defeated. Roosevelt asked him to raise funds for the Republicans "as the national committee had utterly failed of obtaining them." Harriman says he told Roosevelt that Depew was the trouble and that if Depew could be cared for in some other way than sending him again to the senate the money would be forthcoming. Roosevelt agreed to send Depew as ambassador to Paris.

"With full belief that he, the president would keep his agreement," says Harriman. "I came back to New York, sent for Treasurer Bliss who told me that I was their last hope and that they had exhausted every other resource."

Harriman declares that he contributed $50,000 and that the remaining $200,000 was raised in a few hours.

"The checks were given to Treasurer Bliss, who took them to Chairman Cortelyou," he goes on to say. "If there were any among them of life insurance companies, of course, Cortelyou must have informed the president. I do not know who the subscribers were other than the friend of Depew, who was an individual. This amount enabled the New York state committee to continue its work with the result that at least 50,000 votes were turned in the city of New York alone, making a difference of 100,000 votes in the general result."

Later, Harriman writes, he saw Roosevelt, who said he did not think it necessary to send Depew to Paris—in fact that he favored him for the senate. Harriman explains that he was taken aback, but he could say nothing further and used what influence he had to return Depew to the senate.

"Ryan's success in all his manipulations, the traction deals, tobacco combinations, manipulation of the Tate Trust Company into the Morton Trust Company, the Shoe and Leather Bank into the National Bank of Commerce, thus covering up his tracks," the letter says in conclusion, "has been done by the adroit mind of Elihu Root, and this is the situation that has been brought about by a combination of circumstances which has brought together the Ryan, Root, Roosevelt element. Where do I stand?"

ROOSEVELT'S REPLY

When Roosevelt read Harriman's letter, he said it was a "deliberate and willful untruth—by right it should be characterized by an even shorter and more ugly word. I never requested Mr. Harriman to raise a dollar for the presidential campaign of 1904."

Roosevelt relies in the main for his reply on a letter which he sent to Representative Sherman of New York in October, 1906. This deals with practically the same matter, as at that time, Sherman had written that Harriman had refused to contribute to the state campaign fund on account of his dislike for Roosevelt, a dislike, Harriman had explained, that was founded upon Roosevelt's failure to keep his agreement to appoint Depew ambassador to France.

Roosevelt's version of the conversation with Harriman—he admits that such a conversation did occur—is that Harriman urged him to appoint Depew ambassador because that would help Governor Odell by pleasing certain big financial interests. The president said he informed Mr. Harriman that he did not believe it would be possible to appoint Mr. Depew and expressed his surprise at his (Harriman's, saying that the men representing the big financial interests of New York wished the appointment made, inasmuch as a number of them had written asking that the place be given to Mr. Hyde. Mr. Harriman on learning Mr. Hyde was a candidate, said that he did not wish to be understood as antagonizing him.

The president, it appears, was unwilling to appoint either Depew or Hyde, as ambassador, and also left unchanged his recommendations to congress concerning the interstate commerce law, notwithstanding suggestions and criticisms by Mr. Harriman of the president's course in that regard as expressed in certain letters, which Mr. Harriman wrote to the president.

The letters to Sherman are quoted in full by Roosevelt. They say that Harriman told Sherman, when the latter asked him whether he wanted to see Hearst in triumph over the [illegible] that "he did not care in the least, because those people were crooks and he could buy them, he could buy congress and buy the judiciary." Roosevelt reiterates to Sherman that Harriman was never requested by him to raise a campaign [illegible] On October [illegible] will be able to come later [illegible] weeks hence before I write my message" when he will get him to come down "to discuss certain government matters not connected with the campaign."

Later Harriman, according to Roosevelt, wrote to him saying that many conversative people had fears as to what Roosevelt would say in his letter of acceptance and he hoped nothing would be said with regard to interstate commerce. This letter was crossed by one from Roosevelt to Harriman, a copy of which is given out by Roosevelt. It was marked "strictly personal." Previously the president had said he wanted to talk to Harriman about Higgins. Now he says it was in reference to currency matters and not railway sub-

DEMOCRATS CAPTURE THE TOWN OF CRIPPLE CREEK

DENVER, April 2.—All the cities and towns of Colorado excepting Denver held municipal elections today. Local issues were fought out principally in a number of towns but one ticket was in the field. The question of licensing saloons was voted on in several towns, the most comprehensive victory for the anti-saloon element being at Boulder. The wiping out of the liquor traffic in that city places the whole of the northern Colorado agricultural district under dry rule. A most partisan victory was at Cripple Creek where the Democrats regained control of the city's affairs after six years of continuous Republican rule. In Leadville and Pueblo, the Democrats were victorious, the latter by a small margin, and in Colorado Springs the straight Republican ticket won out. In the mountain towns where liquor was before the voter's the saloon element carried the day.

RUEF JURY IS HARD TO SECURE---TWO MEN ACCEPTED SO FAR

SAN FRANCISCO, April 2.—A legal battle that promises to last for weeks and which is expected to be in a measure pivotal of all the criminal proceedings growing out of the grand jury's bribery graft investigation, was begun in earnest today when Abraham Ruef, San Francisco's indicted political boss, was placed on trial in Judge Dunne's department of the superior court on the charge of extorting large sums of money from local French restauranteurs under threat that unless paid, he and Mayor Schmitz would prevent the renewal of their liquor licenses by the police commission.

Only a very brief session of court was held in the morning, adjournment being taken until two o'clock owing to the absence of a talesman, for whom a bench warrant was issued. When court adjourned at the conclusion of the afternoon session, one talesman had been examined and passed without challenge by both sides and the second was under examination by the defense. The first is J. R. Bradstreet, a weather-strip manufacturer of No. 759 Eddy street; the second, Angelo R. Duperu, a real estate man living at 2152 Pine street.

The talesmen were closely questioned as to their acquaintance with editors, reporters, municipal officials, French restaurant men, grand jurors, Judge Dunne and others. They were asked whether they had any prej-

Alienists Are Still Battling Over Harry Thaw's Sanity

NEW YORK, April 2.—It was announced tonight after a session which lasted from 10:30 this morning until 6:30 p. m. that the lunacy commission inquiring into the present mental state of Harry K. Thaw will conclude its labors tomorrow and report its conclusions to Justice Fitzgerald before the hour set for the Thaw jury to report in court Thursday morning.

There will be a brief public session tomorrow to hear the testimony of an alienist offered by District Attorney Jerome and then will follow a private mental and physical examination of the defendant. Only the members of the commission and the official stenographers will be present at Thaw's ordeal, attorneys for the defense and the district attorney being barred.

The announcement that the commission desired to renew its private examination of Thaw came at the end of a day of many witnesses and it was in the nature of a surprise. The decision probably was due to the conflicting character of the testimony heard today. It was another battle of alienists.

Those engaged by the district attorney declared Thaw absolutely incapable of understanding his condition, of realizing the nature of the charge against him, or of rationally conferring with counsel, while those engaged by the defense declared Thaw throughout the trial had acted in a rational manner; had rationally advised his counsel in their hearing and fully understood and appreciated everything connected with the trial.

MANSFIELD'S CONDITION

YOUNG WIFE ASSUMES GUILT AND GOES TO PRISON

LOS ANGELES, April 2.—Mrs. Sydney Hendricks was today sentenced to two years in San Quentin by Judge Smith of the superior court on a conviction of burglary. She broke into the room of another woman and stole wearing apparel and other effects.

Mrs. Hendricks, who is twenty two years old, accused her husband of compelling her to commit the crime but afterwards assumed the guilt herself.

Chicago Passes Into Control of Republican as Its Mayor

CHICAGO, April 2—Chicago's postmaster, Frederick A. Busse, the Republican candidate, was elected mayor of the city today having a plurality of 13,121 votes over Mayor Edward F. Dunne. The total number of votes cast for Mr. Busse was 164,839, and for Mr. Dunne 151,718. The prohibition candidate polled 5,875 votes and the socialists 13,459. Two years ago, when Mayor Dunne was elected to office, he polled 163,109 votes and John M. Harlan, the Republican candidate, 138,671. The socialist vote the same year was over 40,000, and today's vote was a great disappointment to the leaders of that party.

The new mayor will have the city council with him, but it is very close, as the make-up of this body shows thirty-five Republicans, thirty-four Democrats and one independent Democrat.

The ordinances settling the street car question were carried by a good majority. The total vote on this question was 163,846 for and 132,720 against.

According to the returns at midnight, the only Democrat outside of aldermen elected was John E. Traeger, Democratic candidate for city treasurer.

The campaign has been one of the most vicious the city has ever known. Charges and counter-charges have been hurled back and forth, the personal lives of the candidates are held up to the public and throughout the entire campaign speakers on both sides have indulged night after night in tirades filled with invective and abuse.

William Randolph Hearst came personally from New York to have part in the campaign and brought with him his ablest cartonists and editorial writers. In his papers were the only publications in the city supporting Mayor Dunne, all others being for Busse and the ordinances. The fight between the editorial departments became so energetic that the actual issues of the campaign were for some time completely lost sight of. The papers favoring Busse made much of the party cry that Chicago was able to manage its own interests without instructions from New York.

The Hearst papers claimed throughout the campaign that Mayor Dunne was acting for the best interests of Chicago, and that it was therefore their duty to support him.

Mayor Dunne abandoned hope within two hours after the polls closed. He received the returns at his home, surrounded by his family and a few friends. He appeared to be greatly affected by the result and said:

"It looks as though the money power has overwhelmed us, but our cause is not lost. Municipal ownership and governmental ownership will win in the end. This election has merely acted as a check. It will retard us for a while, but the movement will go on and will in the end be successful.

jects. He writes to Harriman that he cannot show him his message, but that the position he has taken with regard to the interstate commission is based upon revelations with regard to the beef trust and that he cannot change it.

Harriman's reply was that an effective interstate commerce commission could regulate rebates and prevent them without any further law. Roosevelt says he left his message unchanged after getting this letter. He declares that the correspondence is incompatible with Harriman's statement that he asked for money. On December 10, 1904, Harriman wrote, asking that Hyde be appointed minister to France. He was refused. Roosevelt says Harriman's remarks about buying congress and the judiciary horrified him.

"It shows a cynicism," writes Roosevelt, "and a deep-seated corruption which make the man uttering such sentiments and boasting, at least as undesirable a citizen as Debs or Moyer, or Haywood. It is because we have capitalists capable of uttering such sentiments and capable of acting on them that there is strength behind sinister agitators of the Hearst type. The wealthy corruptionist and the demagogue who excites, in the press or upon the stump, in office or out of office, class against class and appeals to the basest passions of the human soul, are fundamentally alike and are usually enemies of the republic. I was horrified, as was Root, when you told us today what Harriman had said to you."

HARRIMAN'S REJOINDER

NEW YORK, April 2.—E. H. Harriman late tonight gave out a statement in response to the statement made public by President Roosevelt today. Mr. Harriman says what he wrote to Webster was, of course, intended for his eyes alone. In the course of a letter which Webster wrote to Harriman in December, 1905, he warned Harriman against being drawn into politics and questioned whether he had any political or party instinct. This drew from Harriman the reply to Webster's inquiry, which, in a substantially correct form, Harriman says was stolen and published. This letter was written on January 2, 1906, at a time when no one could doubt the cordiality of Harriman's relations with the president, he adds. He goes on to say:

"When I learned late yesterday afternoon that a New York paper had a transcript of these notes, I notified the publisher at once of the facts and urged upon his attention the gross outrage that the publication of it under such circumstances would involve. While deploring, of course, that the sacredness of a private correspondence should be violated, I cannot withdraw anything from the letters. I have read the president's statement and am most anxious to treat him and his utterances with respect which his high office demands. Nevertheless I feel bound to call attention to certain things in which he does me an injustice.

"In his letter to Mr. Sherman he clearly seeks to give the impression that the personal interview in the fall of 1904 was of my seeking. He gave his (Harriman's) and my letter now before me in the fall of 1904 ran as follows: 'On his return from spending the summer in Europe on September 10, he wrote me stating that if I thought it desirable he would come to see me at any time, then or later. When he had been, as you remember, a delegate to the Republican convention, having acted for my nomination. On September 28 I answered his letter, saying at present there is nothing for me to see you about, though there were one or two points in my letter of acceptance which I would like to have discussed with you before putting it out.'

"Let me present the facts. On June 29, 1904, the president wrote me the following letter which he does not include in the correspondence published today. It reached me in Europe:

"'White House, Washington, June 29, 1904.

"'Personal.

"'My Dear Mr. Harriman: I thank you for your letter. As soon as you come home, I will want to see you. The fight will doubtless be hot then. It has been a real pleasure to see you this year.

"'Very truly yours.

"'THEODORE ROOSEVELT.'

"In reply to this, I wrote him on my return from Europe the letter of September 20, the opening sentence of which he eliminated in his publication:

"'New York, Sept. 20, 1904.

"'My Dear Mr. President: I was glad to receive your note of June 29th last while I was in Europe. I am now getting matters that accumulated during my absence somewhat cleared up and if you think it desirable will go to see you at any time either now or later. It seems to me that the situation could not be in better shape.'

"'Yours sincerely,

"'E. H. HARRIMAN.

"'To the President, Washington, D. C.'

"Then followed a series of invitations from the White House both from the president and his secretary urging me to go to Washington. On October 10th the president wrote:

"'In view of the trouble over the state ticket in New York I should much like to have a few words with you. Do you think you can get down here within a few days or take either lunch or dinner with me.'

"On October 14th he wrote:

"'My Dear Mr. Harriman:

"'A suggestion has come to me in a roundabout way that you don't think it wise to come to see me in these closing weeks of the campaign, but that you are reluctant to refuse inasmuch as I have asked you.

"'A funeral in my family prevented a prompt response to the president's repeated invitations, but finally, about October 20th, I was able to go to Washington and see him. There is some difference of recollection as to what transpired at that interview.

"Fortunately the president himself in his 'personal' letter of November 30 throws some light upon what did take place. He says: 'If you remember when you were down here, both you and I were so interested in certain of the New York political departments that I hardly touched on governmental matters.' Again in the same letter he says: 'As a matter of fact, as you will remember, when you did come down to see me, you and I were both so engaged in the New York political situation that we talked of little else.'

"'The invitation of October 10 bade me to the White House to have a few words with the president 'in view of the trouble with the state ticket in New York.' I had replied on October 12: 'I am giving a very large part of my time to correcting the trouble here and intend to do it if any effort on my part can accomplish it. I will take occasion the first of next week to run down and see you, and I think by that time the conditions will be very much improved.'

"Whether I was seeking his aid to secure the adherence of the state of New York to the state ticket or he was seeking mine, is proved or disproved by this correspondence and I cheerfully submit to the public whether the inference clearly suggested by the president is the proper one. I did not so understand it from the invitation nor from the interview.

"The president dwells at length on the assertion that he did not ask me to contribute for the presidential campaign, nor for his personal benefit.

"I do not deny this statement, nor is it all consistent with the assertions I made in the Webster letter respecting the interview. Therein I distinctly said: 'The president sent me a request to go to Washington for a conference upon political conditions in New York state. I complied and he told me he understood the campaign could not be successfully carried out without sufficient money and asked if I would help them in raising the necessary fund as the national committee under Chairman Cortelyou had utterly failed of obtaining them and there was a large amount due them from the New York state committee.'

"If that means anything, whatever, it must be that he was urging me to help the New York state committee and not the presidential campaign, except so far as the success of the state ticket would contribute to the success of the national ticket.

"What the condition of the finances of the New York state committee of the Republican party was, was well known to every one. That the national committee did owe the state committee and the state committee was in financial straits is notorious. I was not a political manager. I was asked to go to Washington by the president in the interests of the state ticket. I could help to raise money. That I did help in this regard: that I did raise funds immediately upon my return from the interview with the president is undeniable and to this fund I contributed $50,000. My interview with the president covered a wide range of subjects connected with the New York state campaign and I did not pretend to go over the whole matter in the Webster letter.

"The president's letter of October 14 and his comment thereon are interesting. In that letter he suggested that I might think there was some danger in my visiting him during the closing weeks of the campaign and suggested that if I thought so, my visit be postponed until after election, when he would ask me to 'discuss some governmental matters not connected with the campaign.' Here were two distinct invitations to discuss two different subjects. I could see no danger in visiting him to discuss New York politics before the election, and therefore I went and discussed the subject alone; and after election took up the other subject for discussion with him.

"I think if what concerned me as the object of the visit had been the government's relation to the railroads the interview would certainly not have been entirely confined to politics.

"I am not responsible for what Mr. Sherman may have said to the president with reference to the conversation he had with me. All that I have to say is that I did meet his urgent requests, that I contributed to his campaign fund, and that the statements alleged to have been attributed to me by him were false. The president was assured of this fact by a mutual friend who was present at the interview."

PARKER VINDICATED

ALBANY, April 2.—Alton B. Parker, Democratic candidate for the presidency in 1904, displayed the keenest interest in the letter of E. H. Harriman published today, especially in regard to its relating to his own charge made in the 1904 campaign that the great corporations were largely financing the Republican campaign. Tonight he issued the following statement:

"That $150,000 was turned over by the Equitable, Mutual and New York Life Insurance Companies to Mr. Cortelyou's committee and has never been denied, of course. It was testified to under oath by a body who could have summoned Mr. Bliss and Mr. Cortelyou to the witness stand if it had been denied. It is safe to deny Mr. Harriman's statement because there is not a commission before whom Mr. Bliss, Mr. Cortelyou and others can be summoned and compelled to testify. Congress has refused to make an investigation of the corporate contributions of 1904 or to pass a law prohibiting corporate contributions in the future. The money raised by Mr. Harriman and contributed by the life insurance companies aggregating $250,000 was but a drop in the bucket as compared with the total contributions by railroads and other great corporations. The public independence of an investigation cannot be over-estimated at this time. One of the questions now pressing for solution is whether the federal government's control over the great corporations shall be extended further. It will help to solve that problem rightly to learn that governmental power in the past has been for political purposes—used to raise money to continue an existing administration. The proof that it has been used will make it clear to every mind that it can be used again."

RAVE TO GO BACK

EL PASO, April 2.—The new immigration law went into effect yesterday and as a result 500 Japanese laborers are in Juarez in straightened circumstances, it is said. Several are being detained in jail pending deportation via San Francisco. The Japapanese are not to be turned into Mexico, but are to be ordered back to Japan direct.

MRS. EDDY IS TOO CLEVER FOR THE ADVISERS OF HER SON

THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LEADER EXECUTES COUP

All Her Property Deeded to Trustees Who Are Given Power to Defend Her Interests in Courts of Law or Of Equity

CONCORD, N. H., A motion for leave to intervene involving the substitution of duly appointed trustees as plaintis in place of "next friends" was the answer of Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy founder of the Christian Science religion, made through her counsel, in the suit brought to compel an accounting of her property.

By a deed of trust Mrs. Eddy transferred practically her entire estate to three trustees, Henry M. Baker, of Boston, Archibald McLellan of Boston and Josiah E. Fernald of Concord.

It is claimed Mrs. Eddy cannot be compelled to appear in court in connection with the pending litigation. The trustees are empowered to prosecute and defend, for the benefit of the estate of Mrs. Eddy, and suits at law or in equity, whether now pending or that may afterward be brought with reference to any matter in which she may be personally interested. With the exception of Mr. McLeelan, the trustees are not believers in the Christian Science doctrine.

RENO THEATRE

The Nevada Hippodrome Circuit Company will build a first-class theatre in Reno, which will be in a circuit with the Goldfield Hippodrome and Tonopah Hipprodrome theatres.

The building will be erected at a cost of $80,000, constructed of cement stone blocks, three stories high, with a frontage of seventy-four feet and a depth of one hundred and twelve feet.

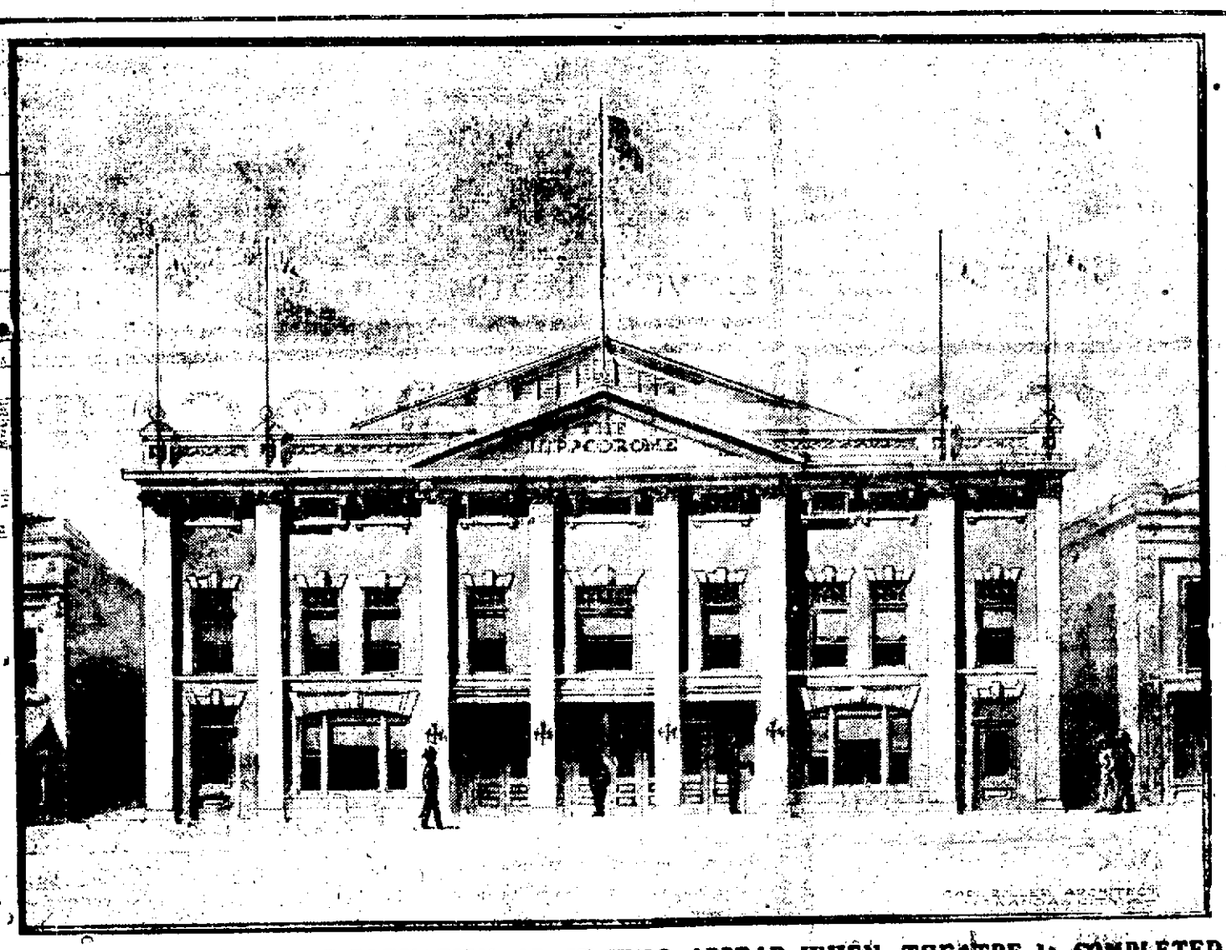

The interior will be handsomely decorated in bright and cheerful colors and the designs will be chaste and modest, the coloring rich and harmonious without gaudiness.

The stage dimensions will be 70 by 30 feet, and will be provided with all the latest "working" features, such as traps, side, center and quarter sectional bridges, sinks, grooves, etc.

A full and complete stock of scenery, drop curtains, asbestos fire curtain, as well as all modern appurtenances for the handling of any kind of attraction, no matter how large, including the large musical comedies, will also be provided.

The theatre will have a seating capacity of 1,500 people. Both auditorium and balcony floors will be on an incline, and opera chairs placed on raised platforms. Large comfortable chairs will be provided for the auditorium and balcony.

The boxes and lodges will be neatly draped and decorated to harmonize with the other decorations of the building.

REPRODUCTION OF FRONT ELEVATION AS IT WILL APPEAR WHEN THEATRE IS COMPLETED

Two of the principal and most important requirements of the modern theatre are its ventilation and fire escapes. A five foot space or alley will be retained on both sides of the house for the purpose of exits, fire escapes and ventilation. All doors will open outwards automatically, by simply pressing a button similar to an electric push.

The construction work will begin on the Reno theatre within thirty days from this date, and will be completed within four months.

The most important feature in connection with a business of this character is the matter of attractions. We are identified with the best vaudeville and dramatic bureaus in the United States; consequently, the best American and European vaudeville acts will be presented in the Reno theatre, and will be operated on strictly approved and legitimate lines, catering to men, women and children.

J. A. Burrichter, general manager of the Nevada Hippodrome Circuit Company, is also connected with several of the large theatre circuits throughout the Northwest, including St. Paul, Minneapolis, Superior and Duluth. He has had twenty years of experience in the theatrical business in all of its branches and is closely allied with the theatrical business throughout the middle west and the eastern part of the United States.

As an INVESTMENT

THE NEVADA HIPPODROME CIRCUIT COMPANY has an authorized capital of $100,000, divided into 20,000 shares of $5.00 each. ::: The Company is now offering for a short time only 10,000 shares of the preferred treasury shares at par value, $5.00 each. THE PRICE OF MEAT GOES SOARING HIGH

Hay at $20 May Have Something to Do With It and There May Be Other Things But There's No Question About the Price

The prices of meats have gone up All retail shops advanced the price of their wares last Monday from two to five cents a pound and the feeling of the caterers can better be imagined than told. The raise in the price to restaurants amounts to from two to three cents per pound and to private families about five cents per pound. According to the retail dealer this is due to a scarcity of stock but what should cause the scarcity is beyond his knowledge.

So far the other restaurants and hotels have been standing the raise because there was no way out of the matter but Sherman and Mitchell of the Palace have taken steps to make it hurt them as little as possible by buying stock and having it killed for them which they say makes the raise somewhat less but does not entirely do away with it. They have bought seventeen beef cattle and these will be killed for them as they are needed.

Pork has advanced more than the other kind of meat having gone up from seven to twelve and a half cents. Veal has advanced to eleven cents with the hide on and mutton has gone to thirteen cents. These are wholesale prices.

The price of beef has advanced from a much lower figure which cannot be accurately quoted because of the great many different prices which at all times prevail for various cuts. It is now up to fifteen to eighteen cents.

One reason given for the remarkable advance in prices is due to the increased price of hay which is now quoted at $20.

FREE SEEDS PLANTED BY CHILDREN IN THE STREET

UNLESS the city keeps the streets clean and free from moisture Reno's public thoroughfares will be a garden of no mean proportions this spring, for the small boy has taken advantage of the opportunity to procure seeds free, and has scattered them generously over the asphalt and through the mud in wanton pleasure.

The Journal still has a large quantity of seeds vegetable and some few flower left, but they will not be given away to children now unless the child brings a note showing for whom they are intended. This precaution is taken to reserve the supply.

WRETCHED STREETS CAUSE COMPLAINT

People Object to Getting Shoes Muddy in Order to Board Street Cars and There Is Annoyance About Crossing East of the Depot

The condition of the streets in the northern part of the city is complained about by the citizens of that quarter, who ask, pathetically, if anything could be worse. In many places one cannot board a street car without wading in mud to the shoe tops. Many are walking on this account who would otherwise ride.

The condition of the street crossing at the east end of the depot is complained about, too, by those who use it, as something crying for a remedy. There the mud between the tracks makes it almost impossible to pull anything like a load, as the mud between the rails is so deep. The asphalt pavement is being damaged by the mud thrown upon it by wheels and feet.

THE SCHOOL QUESTION INTERESTS ALL

SPANISH SPRINGS WOULD LIKE AGAIN TO HAVE PUBLIC SCHOOL

G N Clute was in from the Spanish Springs country yesterday, and was busy trying to get the public school for his district re-established. The school was discontinued four or five years ago, as there were not enough children in the district to make it eligible.

The population of Spanish Springs has increased since then, however and as there are now the requisite number of children, the county commissioners will be petitioned for the maintenance of a public school.

WADSWORTH VOTES WELL ON THE SCHOOL TAX QUESTION

Notice of a favorable vote on the proposition to levy a special tax of fifty cents on the $100 for the use of the schools of Wadsworth was filed in the office of Clerk Fogg yesterday. Eighteen ayes and one no were recorded on the vote.

Wadsworth needs additional school facilities. The citizens are willing to pay for them and the permission of the county commissioners was procured for the purposes of holding an election.

TENANT CAN'T FIND NEW HOUSE SO STAYS IN TAYLOR'S

William Gladding was sued in the justice court yesterday by A J Taylor for possession of a dwelling house which has been occupied by Gladding since the first of March.

Gladding said he was willing to get out when he could find another house but had no idea when that would be and when told that he would be removed by process of law unless he vacated otherwise did not seem to be at all disturbed by the prospect. He said that he was but very little of the time himself away and that if the women folks could not find a house let them be put out.

Out of sympathy for the family Taylor consented to a seven days extension of the time when the judgment was to go into effect to allow them to find a place to move to.

THE LATE FRANK CURIEUX SPENT HIS EARLY DAYS IN TUSCARORA

Frank Curieux whose death in San Francisco was reported in the Journal yesterday was well known to many of the older residents of the state especially those of the northwest in portion where his earlier days were spent. Many of the residents of Tuscarora of twenty years ago will recall him as a boy. Recently he had been engaged in mercantile pursuits at Beowawe where he was one of the foremost business men.

He leaves a mother and three sisters to mourn his loss besides a widow and three children. He left an estate valued at about $60 000.

The funeral services will be held at the home of his sister Mrs A H Smith at 357 Chestnut street at two o'clock this afternoon and interment will be in Masonic cemetery.

CRACKERJACKS ENGAGED FOR THE OVERLANDS' AGGREGATION

Posters were out yesterday for a grand ball to be given by the Overland baseball team at Wheelmen's hall April . The members of Reno's diamond aggregation are making arrangements for this affair and they will open the season socially by one of the greatest blow outs ever held here. The Oberon orchestra will furnish the music.

The latest sporting talk is that Waterbury the idol of the north will play with the Overlands. Waterbury has started with the Coast League and he has played more outlaw and brush ball than any other man in the game. He is now holding a government job at Vallejo.

Joe Thomas of Sacramento, Los Angeles, Oakland, Marysville and every place where there is a ball fan will be in the box for the Overlands with Westall. Thomas will arrive here to open the season against the Grass Valley Giants April 14.

SOME HORSE TALK

Considerable horse talk is being heard this spring which takes everything from a plow to a trotter and there seems to be some ground for the talk owing to market conditions. San Francisco is a ready buyer and this fact has tended to raise the price of horse flesh in the western market. Among the local importers of stock here are McNeil who has shipped several cars of fine draft horses from Colorado, Grimmins, who has unloaded some good ones, Muller who has brought some fancy trotters to the market and Bowers who has brought some very fine looking stock for breeding purposes.

THE HALLIDAY DIVORCE

Jack Halliday and his wife Ethel B Halliday will soon be the chief actors in a drama before the district court here. Yesterday Attorneys Dodge and Knight filed a proof of the publication of summons on behalf of the plaintiff J E Halliday.

The publication was made in a local weekly and the cause for the divorce is stated there although the complaint is sealed was given as desertion for more than a year. Neither of the parties to the suit for divorce has returned to this city as yet. The case will probably come up for trial about April 10.

The Real President

THIS time, Theodore Roosevelt's "You're a liar" has produced an emphatic response. The president of the United States has conclusively demonstrated that, whether he asked E. H. Harriman to raise money for the Republican campaign or not, he was in close political relationship with the arch-chief of Wall street.

This intimacy cannot be doubted. The published correspondence proves it beyond the remotest question.

What a charlatan came to light! Here he was ramping like a ... in public whenever the railway question was mentioned. He was the people's defender. He would force the railroads to time. Oh, yes, indeed he wouldn't do a thing to the dreadfully wicked corporations. Why, whenever the word railway was mentioned, if a correspondent was around Theodore would shake his mane, show his teeth and snort—"the earth shook and trembled; the foundations of heaven moved and shook because he was wroth; there went up a smoke out of his nostrils and fire out of his mouth devoured; coals were kindled by it."

But all this was in public on the front steps of the White House with the people looking on.

And in private—

Oh, dear sakes alive, can it be Harriman? That's what. That dark shadow gliding up the backsteps of the executive mansion is Harriman, the controller of corporations, the chief of monopolists, the king of manipulators, the archduke of trusts, the man who was being denounced by Roosevelt in stentorian tones. Harriman the monopolist, the man who was preventing legislation, "buying up congress and buying up the judiciary," was the president's intimate friend and adviser, cordially invited to go to Washington and lunch or dine with Roosevelt, urged to advise the president.

Here this country had placed Theodore Roosevelt upon a pedestal and had bowed down before him. To be sure, there was some clay in the feet of the image and from time to time there were people who declared that the whole thing was bogus, but such persons were frowned upon and pushed back into the outskirts of the crowd.

And now the image has been overthrown. It lies in the dust. "What a fall was there, my countrymen!"

There is no way out of the dilemma, Roosevelt, supposed ultra champion of the people against the railroads, is proved to have been upon the most intimate terms with Harriman who would destroy the people's right to control the companies. It is evident Roosevelt was not only receiving advice from Harriman, but actually seeking it, and when Harriman was diffident about giving it we find Roosevelt urging him to come to the White House and give him the benefit of Harriman's counsel.

Deceit—nothing but deceit from beginning to end!

It may be said that Roosevelt did not take Harriman's advice, any way. But what right had Harriman to think that the president would take it? Just read the synopsis of the correspondence and there it will be seen that Harriman possessed the right because Roosevelt asked him for counsel—ASKED it, BEGGED it.

And that is the kind of a president the United States has in Theodore Roosevelt, President! By the vote of the electoral college entitled to the name, of course, but the letters show that the real president of the United States was and always will be under a Republican administration—EDWARD H. HARRIMAN.

The Chicago Election

EFFORTS will be made to persuade the people that the result of the Chicago election has something to do with the national issues of railway control, but this will not be correct. The people of Chicago have demanded a better street-car service for years and Judge Dunne, when elected, promised to give it to them. He talked large about forcing the traction companies to sell out to the city and he pledged himself to relieve the municipality in many ways.

Not one of these promises has been kept. On the contrary, the traction situation is worse than ever. Dunne proved himself to be a four-flusher, a false alarm.

Another factor that entered into the election was that of human interest. In a recent accident on the Pennsylvania railway, Busse was severely injured. He has been an invalid. That sort of thing counts and Busse unquestionably received a large sympathetic vote.

But national issues never appeared in the Chicago municipal campaign, though the short-sightedness of A. M. Lawrence, Mr. Hearst's managing editor in Chicago, led to an effort on Dunne's part to make the voters imagine that J. P. Morgan, E. H. Harriman, Thomas F. Ryan and August Belmont, in some mysterious way, had a personal interest in the result. Mr. Lawrence, as he had previously in San Francisco, proved that he was not a good political manager. His fundamental principle in politics is that the people are fools. They are not. Sometimes they may be misled, but, as a rule, they understand and they make few errors.

Chicago's political campaign has been bitterly personal. It is to be hoped that this is not a foretaste of we are to expect in the national canvass of next year. If so, we offer this suggestion: mud throwing in politics usually results in bemiring the thrower. If the Democratic party can compel its opponents to behave decently, let us have a clean campaign and let it be clean in any event, as far as Democracy is concerned.

A Plaza Lawn

THE Journal wishes to call attention to the fact that the old boxcars in the Plaza that have been an eyesore for years, were removed by the Southern Pacific Company yesterday. This paper a few weeks ago drew attention in this column to the need of removing the cars and suggested that the railroad people were imposing upon the city in maintaining them there. The suggestion was evidently received in good part for the cars are gone. The people of Reno feel grateful for this prompt action.

It is now the duty of the city to see that the Plaza, thus vacated, is made attractive. The place was originally intended for a public park and ought to be made the most of. There should be a green lawn to catch the eye of the traveler. There ought to be trees.

Who will make the beginning? It may be urged that to keep trees in condition and to see that a lawn is maintained at its best will cost money. Probably so, but Reno can afford it and the expense will not be high. In other cities there are organizations that undertake to plant trees. Let such an association be formed here and let the city government buy the seed for the grass. And then get busy.

Now is the time to start the lawn. If we wait too long it will be too late. Get at the ground. Plow it and see that the work is done right.

And do it NOW.

said that it was a $7,000,000 plant and that over one-third of it was destroyed. It was the main lighting plant which distributed power to all the sub-stations in the city. Mr. Britton stated that while it would take considerable time to duplicate much of the valuable machinery, the city lighting system would be connected with the company's mountain reserve power lines in Yuba and Sacramento counties and hoped to have the greater part of the city lighted by tomorrow night.

GOLDFIELD MINERS WILL MEET OWNERS

At the Meeting of the Union Last Night a Committee Was Appointed to Confer With Proprietors

GOLDFIELD, Nev., April 2.—Extraordinary efforts were put forth tonight to effect a settlement of the labor troubles. Governor Sparks and United States Senator Nixon arrived here today, the latter of whom with George Wingfield, has the largest mining interests in the camp. Governor Sparks has acted as mediator once before and then effected the settlement of the last labor disputes. He was in consultation all day with the leaders of the miners. A committee from the miners met the executive committee of the mine owners association late this evening.

Tonight the miners held their regular meeting and installed the new officers elected a week ago.

The visit of the state's chief executive to Goldfield at this particular time is the result of an invitation extended to him by those representing the mine owners, who are laboring most earnestly for a settlement of existing difficulties.

The governor spent last night in Tonopah and there held a conference with representatives of the mine owning interests in the Goldfield district.

This conference was subsequent to another held yesterday between representatives of the mine owners and the special committee which was appointed one week ago last evening at the meeting of the Miners' Union. At the latter conference the attitude of the mine owners was made clear to the representatives of the miners.

The Miners' Union tonight appointed a committee of five to wait upon the Business Men's and Mine Owners' Association to confer regarding a settlement of the present labor trouble. This is considered as the first move toward a settlement of the difficulty that resulted in the shutdown of all the mines in the district. While it is not claimed that a settlement is probable within the next few days, the action of the miners' union tonight is generally considered as a long step toward a solution of the present difficulty. The executive committee of the business men and mine owners' association met tonight but in the absence of any communication from the miners, no action was taken. A satisfactory solution of the labor trouble is generally expected within the next few days.

udice against lawyers and whether they thought Judge Dunne really believed that Ruef had ever been a fugitive from justice; whether they were prejudiced against political bosses or the union labor party, and whether, if the court rulings showed the judge's animosity, would that prejudice them against Ruef.

The process of jury-getting was frequently enlivened by clashes of counsel out of which sprang keen retorts, and by flashes of unconscious humor struck from talesmen by questions put. Juror Bradstreet early in the afternoon session fastened curious attention upon himself by the vehemence with which he expressed his disinclination to eventually sit in the jury box. He declared that he thought he could better employ his time by attending to his business and looking out for his wife and babies than by "sitting here listening to this case."

Reminded by Prosecutor Johnson that he owed also a duty to the municipality, the juror retorted: "Yes, but my duty is to my family first. I can't make a living here."

At another point in his examination Bradstreet provoked a wave of merriment by replying thus to the question whether he had had any acquaintance with the keeper of a certain fashionable French restaurant.

"No, I haven't. Yes, I have too. One day in 1878 or 1879 I went out and caught a lot of bullfrogs and took them down to his place and sold them to him. I had that acquaintance with the man. But I don't want to serve on this case."

By the time the talesmen was finished with, several of his fellow jurors were wiping the tears of laughter from their eyes, and it was with difficulty the bailiffs kept order in the court.

Ramsey Bonanza Gold Mining Co.

ONE of the most promising properties in the famous Ramsey District.

It consists of six full claims located in the RAMSEY MINING DISTRICT near the town of Ramsey.

Already there has been more than 360 feet of actual development work done on these claims consisting of two shafts on the ledge matter besides crosscutting. This is the famous Bennett group, and has been systematically developed so far under careful management.

The ore is free milling and the outlook is for one of the greatest properties in Nevada.

Roads have been built and the property is in shape for the installment of machinery, and in order to do this the company has decided to place a limited amount of treasury stock on the market at 20 cents a share. Only 25,000 shares will be sold now, so you will have to hurry—the people of Ramsey and vicinity who know the property are clamoring for the stock.

From the strikes already made in the Ramsey Comstock and other mines it is certain that Ramsey will be a high-grade camp not surpassed by any in the State. Get your subscription in early to

HAPPENINGS FROM SPARKS

ORATORICAL FIREWORKS WERE LET OFF AT SPARKS LAST NIGHT

Nominations for City Offices Began But a Maelstrom of Eloquence Dragged Everything in and Left Uncertainty as to What Was Done and What Was Not

What looked like a real live political convention could have been seen last night at the city hall in Sparks any time between 7:30 and eleven o'clock. And what will probably be remembered as the greatest display of oratorical fireworks could have been witnessed at any time during the performance.

The occasion was the result of an invitation by the city council to the citizens to meet and discuss municipal conditions and indorse candidates for the various offices to be filled at the coming city election. At 7:30 Acting Mayor Pollock called the convention to order and stated the purpose of the meeting. Then the astute city dad did a mean trick. He decided without the formality of an election that he should be chairman, thereby putting the machine entirely and completely out of commission.

One of the greatest pleasures of an assembled convention is to elect a chairman and hear that august official spout upon taking his exalted seat. Put the convention last night was robbed of the pleasure by the machine method of the acting mayor. Nor to insinuate that the acting mayor belongs to a machine. As some one put it, it was not a machine but a wheelbarrow.

Nominations were immediately declared in order and Frank Hatton and Mr Pollock were named. It was then determined to nominate for all the offices and elect by ballot, each ballot to contain the name of one candidate for each office to be filled.

Candidates H. C. Mulcahy and George Robison were nominated for city clerk.

Every man in town who made any pretensions at being a lawyer was nominated for city attorney. There were four of them, including the present city attorney, Stewart, Judge Fletcher and Judge Doley.

W. R. Shaber, Charles Martin and Jack Barrett were nominated for council from the second ward. F. C. Taft was the only candidate named by the third.

The balloting begun and the men receiving the majority votes for the different offices are as follows:

Frank Hatton for mayor, H. C. Mulcahy and George Robison were neck and neck for clerk, each receiving twenty-three votes. Stewart received the plurality for city attorney. Shober was the choice for councilman from the second yard and Taft won out in the third ward.

Then it was that Z. P. Mackabee, the machine boss and a Tammany graduate, arrived and started something. After being informed what the deliberations to date had been, he demurred to further proceedings unless a councilman should be nominated from the first ward.

Many opinions upon the legality of the proceedings of the council in not providing for an election in the first were given by the laymen present. Then the learned lawyers took a hand and the spectators at the trial of Aaron Burr never witnessed a more fiery combat than thereupon ensued. The arguments were wonderfully astute and would have bothered any court to follow. City Attorney Stewart defended the action of the council and Judges Fletcher and Dal opposed. Who won out is still a question and groups of men could be seen at an early hour this morning still trying to decide.

The question was as to whether the present councilman from the first, being and appointee by the council, to take the place made vacant by the resignation of C. A. Beemer, until the "next regular general city election" should be called a hold-over. The charter is plain in the matter, the only question being, does the charter mean what it says or something else.

The debate did not end. From a dignified body, listening attentively to the eloquent speaker on the floor the convention retrograded until it became a regular quilting bee where everybody talks at once.

Several motions were made. One provided that a councilman should be nominated for the first and his right to a place on the ballot be tested by mandamus proceeding. Another motion provided that the ticket nominated should be called the citizens' ticket, but no motions were put to a vote.

A parliamentary question arose and the convention discovered that it had no chairman whatsoever, and so no standing before the rules of Roberts, whereupon everybody adjourned at once without motion or malice.

SPARKS PERSONALS

Mrs. S. Jensen is confined to her bed with illness.

Thomas Spelbey leaves tonight for Salt Lake from which place he expects to go soon to Goldfield to search for the hidden treasure.

Harry Allen has severed his connection with the Robison Mercantile Company, expecting to find remunerative employment in Reno.

Mrs. H. E. Hulz, from Bloomington, Ill., has joined her husband in Sparks. Mrs. Hulz has the right kind of enthusiasm, declaring herself agreeably impressed with the division city.

Mr. Grace is confined to his bed with an attack of pneumonia. The doctor in attendance hopes to check the disease before it becomes serious.

Mr. F. Cummings and family are stopping for a few days at the Hotel Snyder. One of the little girls of the family was taken sick while on the way to Lake View, Oregon, compelling the family to stop over.

Thomas McGlynn of San Francisco, late of Dawson, is in town with his partner from Rosebud. They are preparing to engage in business in the new mining camp which they declare to be the coming camp of the state. Mr. McGlynn's partner was formerly owner of the Tuxedo in Portland, Oregon.

A dollar an hour to dig post holes was the standing bid of Mr. Herberth, but no takers in all Sparks. Mr. Herberth dug the holes himself and is several dollars richer. A dollar an hour is pretty big pay and yet a man is not lacking occasionally to ask for a dime to buy a cup of coffee.

Machinist Cosby was struck on the head by a slipping piston liner yesterday while at work in the shops, receiving an ugly wound. Dr. Metcalf dressed the injury but the man will not be able to resume duties for some time. Had the heavy machine struck him squarely there would have been far more serious results.

Frank O'Connor returned yesterday from San Francisco where he has been visiting his wife and first born, a daughter, ten days of age. He is receiving the congratulations of the boys. Mr. O'Connor says that San Francisco in the vicinity of his old home, Twenty-second and Mission, is beginning to look like a Coney Island. A magnificent theater is being constructed, besides the one already there, that will seat over two thousand people. All sorts of amusement resorts are springing into existence and values are going up fabulously. One corner that went begging at $600 after the fire now earns a rental of $12,500. The Valencia street station formerly despised by the Southern Pacific, has become a miniature Grand Central. Mr. O'Connor is enthusiastic over his family and the prospects in San Francisco. Besides tales of fabulous fortunes that are being made daily he has a good dog story to tell and started to tell it, but just at the moment the politicians broke in looking for a majority and dragged the man and the story away.

TOPEKA, Kansas, April 2—William Green, Republican, was elected mayor of Topeka today by a plurality of about 1500.

SUIT FOR WORK

The Borden-Shannon Construction Company, suing the Nye & Ormsby County Bank, was answered yesterday by the attorneys for the defendants. The contractors say they agreed to renovate the interior of the bank on Center street, for which they were to be paid $1700; they allege that only $850 was ever paid.

The bank in turn replies that the work was not done properly, not finished at the time agreed, and that the material was not of a quality warranting such a change being made.

WRECKER CALLED OUT

The wrecker was called out Monday night to the scene of a small accident near Lovelock. Two cars jumped the track, causing some damage and considerable delay.

There have been quite a number of small derailments lately, but they have been of minor consequence and the two divisions have for a long time escaped a serious wreck.

A few nights ago a waiter named Seaton, employed in the Arcade restaurant, slapped the face of a girl waiter, through which proceeding he was dispensed with as a waiter by the proprietors, and narrowly escaped arrest.

New York Stocks

Prices made in London early today after a triple holiday were much higher than where they left off on Thursday and the tone was firm These early prices in London were regarded as largely nominal and the support in the local market here had no difficulty in bringing quotations well over last night's level. From this restored level of the market that the movement became wavering and uncertain again. There was no immediate development in affairs to account for this action and it is attributed largely to technical causes. The relaxation, too, was marked and practically universal here and abroad. In London the private discount rate dropped to below the bank rate for the first time in many weeks. New York bankers secured $2,500,000 of gold in London without bidding higher than the prevailing rate.

SPEAKS WELL OF NEVADA AND HER MINES

ATTORNEY STEVENSON OF DENVER TALKS OF VISIT

Loud in His Praises of Nevada As a Mineral State and Thinks Well of Reno and Her Citizens and Improvements

Attorney A. M. Stevenson of Denver who recently spent a few days in Reno while on a tour of the state combining business with his review of the many mining districts, is very enthusiastic about Nevada and her mines. In an interview published in the Denver Republican after his return he says:

"There never has been another region like it in the world. It is no wonder that there has been some wild-catting there, because the real facts are so astonishing that it is difficult to distinguish between what is true and what is not true. I could cite you dozens of instances where young lawyers, stenographers, and others, from Denver, have made immense fortunes there in perfectly legitimate ways, and there seems to be no reason why others should not do the same. It is a fact which cannot be too strongly emphasized that the mining industry and mining stocks are far more legitimate business than the Wall street stock jobbing which is ruining thousands of people all over the country every year.

"I visited Tonopah, Goldfield, Reno and the Olinghouse district north of Reno, among other places. The Olinghouse district is being worked very successfully. They are putting up mills there now and shipping ore right along. The Pea Vine district, twenty miles north of Reno is worth mention. It has showed some very good properties lately. The Wonder country is also a good substantial country. In my private opinion the Yerington district, east and south of Reno is going to be the great permanent camp. That is only a personal guess, however.

"Reno is a good town, a fine town. It is clean, and nice, and well built, with wide streets, all well paved and a bridge over the Truckee river that would do credit to a town of a half a million population. The buildings are substantial and handsome and the people alert and confident in the future of the town and the surrounding country. They feel that they are the real center of the greatest mining district, and they are.

The Highland Boy Mining Company, which recently started development work on their ground in the Keane Wonder section, opened a shoot of ore on the Highland Ladd claim that assayed $23 in gold. Some good stuff has also been cut in the Gold Lead claim.

* * *

A new shaft has been started on the Federal Ely Company's property in Ely district. The point of operations this time is midway between the two present blowouts and about 500 feet away from the first workings. The shaft will be sunk to a vertical depth of 400 feet, but it is expected that after the 100 foot level has been passed the ore body will warrant expensive lateral operations. The Guggenheim experts recently inspected the property and it is their opinion that the new shaft will expose a better body of ore for value and more convenient for working facilities than any yet opened on the company's holdings. It was also their opinion that the new shaft would strike its richest ore values at a depth of about 130 feet.

NOTICE POOL STOCK HOLDERS

Cash will be paid for pool stock certificates in mining companies whose stocks are active on San Francisco exchange. Address, Investor, Box 200, 1552 Broadway, New York. m6eod

MINING NOTES

After much delay reports from Rhyolite state that the spur tracks of the Las Vegas railroad will be completed to the Montgomery Shoshone mine within a few days.

Dorr, McDonald & Company, brokers of Rhyolite, have sold a controlling interest in the Inyo Canyon Gold Mining Company whose property is located in Echo Canyon to Minneapolis capitalists.

Some good rock has been produced from the bottom of the twenty-five foot shaft in the Theresa group of claims in Echo Canyon. The ledge is two feet wide and the owners expect to find a large ore body when the shaft reaches the depth of 100 feet. This property adjoins the Inyo Gold holdings.

Things are forging forward at a rapid pace in the Skidoo district, and several important strikes have been made in the camp the past week. The latest development is the uncovering of a new ledge on the property of the Granite Contact Mines Company. The ledge was found while doing some trenching on claim No. 4, and there is two feet of ore, assays from which have brought values of $192.50 to the ton. The rock is identical with the rock in the Skidoo tunnel.

What promises to be another bonanza red metal proposition has been started in the Yerington district. The Yerington Nipper Copper Company, incorporated by Salt Lake operators have started active operations on their property located between the Ironsides and Ludwig properties in that district. Work at the present time is being confined to surface exploration and the ore exposed to the sunshine is sufficient to warrant the company's plans for deeper developments which will be prosecuted soon.

FOR THE PUBLIC GOOD.

THIS WILL INTEREST EVERY RESIDENT OF RENO.

You can readily verify the following particulars, for the gentleman supplying them will be only too pleased to answer any inquiries by mail. If you suffer from disorder of the kidneys or bladder and desire to be cured write him about Doan's Kidney Pills and learn that the following statement is true in every particular:

James Brannigan, Jr., corner Pine and Cottage streets, Nevada City, Cal., says: "Some three years ago when prospecting for myself in company with others, early in the evening, when on night shift I wrenched my back on a car, and about ten o'clock it was so painful I had to return home. A lady induced me to use Doan's Kidney Pills. I took her advice, took the pills as directed and only lost half a shift before I was able to commence work. Since then I have always spoken to a number of people about Doan's Kidney Pills, and my advice at the present time to anyone suffering from backache is to go for Doan's Kidney Pills and the result obtained from their use will not be disappointing.

FORMER LA PLATTE MINE HAS RESUMED OPERATIONS

This Old Mine Abandoned Because Funds gave Out Was Once the Famous Property in the Times When La Platte Was Active Camp

Chloride, or old La Platte, is coming into its own. The history of the La Platte mine is replete with interest. In the early '60s, in war times, La Platte was an active camp. Hon Benjamin Curler was then district attorney. His only son, B. F., the retiring district judge, was born at La Platte. A mining company was then working the La Platte mine. This is now known as the Mountain Cedar mine. It is now owned and controlled by Judge Curler, Dr. Bell and their associates, and is being opened according to the latest approved mining methods under the supervision of a first-class miner. In early days, this mine was a producer of rich ore. It made quite a record. All of a sudden the shaft run into country rock and those operating the mine knew not what was the matter or what to do. They groped about in the dark for a time and finally became discouraged, run out of money and La Platte dwindled away and died a natural death. In these latter days mining men know better the nature of faults, and when Judge Curler saw the ground and took a competent geologist to examine it, it required but little study to say where the ledge would be found. Under the proper directions the ledge was found forty-five feet from the old fault, and the ledge matter exceedingly rich and strong. Churchill county now has another producer in the Mountain Cedar, and here's wishing La Platte the success its new owners merit.

REWARD

A reward of five dollars will be given for information leading to the discovery of the persons guilty of carrying away six posts and cutting the fence wires surrounding the property near the cattle bridge. If any one is caught cutting said wire he will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

RAILROAD GOES THROUGH YERINGTON PROPERTIES

Under the recent railroad franchise bill, which has been passed by the legislature and signed by Governor Sparks, the Southern Pacific will soon construct the road from Schurz to Yerington.

This means that a railroad will in the near future be in operation through the valuable properties of the Yerington Red Metal Mining Company, of which E. F. Adams is the general manager, with offices in the Masonic Temple building.

Many people interested in copper may not know that values as high as 50 per cent have been obtained in this property, with an immense body of ore already blocked out. Rich values are being run into every few days. A hoist has been ordered and will arrive during the coming week. Flattering reports come from the superintendent in charge, and with the result that the Yerington Red Metal is commanding considerable attention.

UNDER TWO TREES IN THE TENDERLOIN IS HIS HOME

"Doc" Reinhart, as he is known to a large number of people, hails, at some remote period of time, from Massachusetts. That much evidence concerning his past, cloudy to even himself, most of the time, is gleaned from the registration books of last year, together with other interesting data concerning his more recent life.

Among this later information is found the statement of residence at the time the entry was made.

"Under two trees in the tenderloin."

So far as is known his present habitation is the same as it was then, if someone has not been so unfeeling as to cut the trees down; and that he sleeps at times standing may be inferred from the fact that during the recent floods he came to the police station one night and said that he was looking for a place to get in out of the wet. He exhibited his feet and legs wet to a little above the knees, which he said had got in that condition by the rising waters while he was asleep.

HEDDEN APPLIED TO THE SUPREME COURT FOR HABEAS WAIT

James F. Hedden and Auditor Lyon of the Tunopah & Goldfield railroad passed through Reno yesterday on their way to Carson City, where they will attend the hearing of the application of the former for a writ of habeas corpus. Hedden was arrested at Hawthorne on a charge of contempt of court, for not producing the books of the railroad in the defendant's trial on a perjury charge.

The attorneys for the T. & G. will attempt to prove to the supreme court today that if Hedden showed the books to Judge Langan in Esmeralda county he would be incriminating himself. The argument for a writ of habeas corpus will be on constitutional grounds.

MARRIAGE LAST NIGHT

Fred A Fine and Miss Mary Evelyn Young were married last night at the Congregational parsonage. Rev. C. L. Mears performed the ceremony, Floyd Lumpkin and Miss Oma Young stood up with the young couple. Fine is a prosperous blacksmith of Reno, and the bride is well thought of by a large number of friends here.

COUNTY RAISES $20,000 NEEDED FOR BRIDGES

Recent Storm Cost That Much Money at Least in Damage Done to Thoroughfares Everywhere and Commissioners Had to Raise the Funds

A temporary loan of $20,000, borrowed under the direction of the state board of revenue, will be made by Washoe county for the purpose of making immediate repairs to the roads and bridges ruined by the great storm. A resolution providing for this loan was passed by the county commissioners. The money will be raised because there is not a sufficient sum in the road fund now to carry out the work.

The commissioners from the different districts report damages to roads and bridges worse than ever reported before. Traffic over some of the roads has been entirely blocked by the absence of crossings on streams, and washed out roads.

The commissioners took this action in the absence of a bond issue to provide for permanent repairs to the roads of the county. The act allowing the issuance of bonds was killed in the legislature, and the money for the purpose will have to be raised by temporary loans.

Clerk Fogg was requested by the commissioners to notify the Peoples Drain Ditch Company, Julia A. Blaisdel, and the North Truckee Ditch Company to make repairs to the bridges and roads between Glendale and Vista. If the repairs are not made as requested, the county will undertake the work and charge the damages to the owners mentioned.

HINES, PRESTON AND SMITH GUARDED AT STATE PRISON

Hines, Preston and Smith remain protected by the guards at the state prison, and the dange rof a jail delivery at Hawthorne is past. The prisoners charged with murder and taken away for safe keeping, were quartered in the county jail in Reno on the trip. The guards said "They (the prisoners) are not socialists, they are anarchists." A careful watch was therefore kept over them.

Murphy, one of the guards, stated to Deputy Sheriff Maxwell here that there are still twenty-eight of the southern country criminals in custody at Hawthorne. He said that the jail there is not strong in the least, and that if an attempt were made to set one man free, all would escape. He said the feeling there runs high and that all precautions are being taken to event trouble.

BOSTON WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, April 2.—Dullness is the feature of the wool market with prices in practically all grades holding firm. The volume of sales of territorial wools have been small. The majority of buyers have their immediate wants supplied. Pulled wools are steady. Foreign grades are firm.

DEMOCRATS CARRY LEADVILLE

LEADVILLE, Col., April 2.—Dr. H. C. Rose, Democrat, was re-elected mayor here today by 500 majority. The Democrats elected four aldermen, city clerk and treasurer by small majorities.

The Republicans elected two aldermen. The issue was "home versus gambling" with the Republicans taking the home end.

COUNTY INSURANCE

Washoe county's court house is insured for $50,00, the fixtures for $1500 and the county hospital frame building for $1000, according to the renewal of policy order made recently. The insurance runs out on April 17, and at that time County Clerk Fogg will insure again.

THE COLTON WRECK

COLTON, Cal., April 2—The verdict of the coroner's jury summoned to investigate the wreck at Colton last Thursday in which twenty-three people lost their lives, and nearly a hundred more were injured, is that the foreman of the switching crew and his assistant were responsible through criminal negligence, and the engineer o fthe overland train was guilty of negligence through running too fast. The Southern Pacific is censured for operating the frail cars in which many of the Italian immigrants were killed.

TAGGART'S PLANS

D. S. Taggart went to Carson City yesterday, and when he returned he stated to the Journal that he was offered a place as secretary to the publicity commission. He said Chairman Davis made him the offer, but he has not yet decided whether he will take the position. In his newspaper last night Davis stated that Taggart could have the secretaryship if he wants it. The Reno man is undecided yet on future plans. He may go into the southern country, and join the mining promoters there.

MART JOHNSON'S SISTER DEAD

Mrs. Barton, part owner of the Colonial hotel in San Francisco, and sister of Mart Johnson of Reno, died Monday night at the home of her mother in Mill Valley, according to a telegram received here yesterday. Johnson departed for the scene on an early morning train.
